Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1975-76
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

"In the beginning was the Word." These are the very well-known and loved opening verses of the fourth Gospel. There is a German translation which reads, "In the beginning was the Deed."

The comparison of these two translations brings to us a real message in a day when church and society are struggling for meaningful program. The Word must be acted out in Deed. The things we do must have the content of the Word.

We might say this in another way: Love is sentimental without justice and there can be no justice without love. Or, to try it still another way: Worship that begins and ends at the Altar can be nothing more than ritual and ceremony. We must go to the Altar, receive the Bread of Heaven and the Cup of Salvation and then go out into the world and carry this new life and hope to our fellowman. This is the essence of all Christian program which saves it from being dull and dry and gives to it meaning and enthusiasm.

It seems to me, as I review the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese, that they are beginning to move in this direction. They are striving for worship and action full of love and justice. In short, they are trying to act out the Word and put the meaning of the Word into all of their deeds. It is this thrust which, I believe, is giving enthusiasm and strength to the life of our Episcopal Churchwomen and I want to cheer you on.

Faithfully, Your Bishop

PRAYERS

RENEWAL

Almighty God, by whose Holy Spirit your children are led to acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; grant that this same Spirit may so dwell in us that we may be daily renewed, and manifest in our lives the Love that reaches out in blessing to all people. Empower us to help build up your Kingdom on earth to your honor and glory. We ask this, gracious Father, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy Church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we work to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant) Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be directed to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray.

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee,
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Annual Meeting, 1975

One morning last fall, during our Churchwomen's Seminar at Quail Roost, we were startled into consciousness when the Rev. James Abbott began his morning invocation with—"You've done it again, God; another beautiful, new day." To paraphrase Mr. Abbott—you've done it again, ladies; another beautiful year: a year filled with enthusiasm, joy and hope.

Your enthusiastic support has been a joy to behold. Again you have visibly responded to the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen by contributing over $93,000.00 in this year of recession. You have done this by meeting our 1974 budget of $21,000.00, by giving $29,775.41 to the United Thank Offering, by contributing $1,365.49 to the Church Periodical Club, and over $40,000.00 through special funds, offerings, and the earnings from your projects. We know this is only the reported giving handled through our Diocesan Treasurer and that far more is dispersed in your local branch and community.

Your board was pleased and excited about the enthusiastic support given to the new concept of the Seminar at Quail Roost. By encouraging commuters from near-by areas we were able to swell our number to 70 participants. For those who were able to attend, the three days proved a rewarding, spirit filled adventure. We are planning another seminar at Quail Roost this fall under the leadership of the Rev. Frank Vest and the Rev. James Abbott. Complete information is in your packet. I urge you to put this event on your calendars when you return home and plan to attend.

You have continued to support our Retreat. Although the number was not at capacity this year, due to last minute cancellations brought on by the flu epidemic, it was a meaningful occasion for all who participated.

A great deal of time and energy was put into the convocation Spring Workshops by your diocesan officers. The response and the excellent attendance in each convocation was heartwarming to us and we thank you for your support.

When I reported to you at the last Annual Meeting, I spoke of plans for studying our budget in greater depth. Following our meeting an Ad Hoc committee was appointed to assist the finance committee. This committee was composed of several past presidents and others with a sound background in the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen. We met several times and carefully reviewed our past budgets and the committee advised us in setting some guide lines for future planning. The finance committee worked many hours in planning and in doing the investigative work necessary to make the decisions on the 1976 Budget which will be presented to you tomorrow for your adoption. We regret that it shows a small decrease in total, rather than an increase, but this is your decision, made when you reduce your pledges rather than increase them.

I also reported to you last year of a concern for our ministry in the area of College Work. When this office became vacated by an untimely resignation last winter, I considered recommending to this body the removal of this office from our board. However, when your diocesan board met, and we thoroughly discussed the issue, they felt college work to be vital and that we should continue to serve in this area. Under the leadership of a newly elected Secretary of Christian Ministries and College Work we shall persist in a study to find new and creative ways to reach our college Youth.

It is with a real sense of gratitude that I report the addition of six new branches to our organization this year and the loss of only one.

To observe the work of the Episcopal Churchwomen has been most interesting. There are almost as many different approaches to the work of the women as there are branches participating. I believe this indicates a strong creativity in each group in searching out ways to respond in their own areas. The high rate of unemployment in recent months has focused on a need for food chains, food banks, clothing closets, and financial aid for the purchase of food, fuel, and medicine to which the churchwomen have responded, along with their entire parish. Bazaars, fairs, and food and plant sales rate high on the list of branch activities. Quiet hours, quiet days, and parish retreats have been held by a number of branches. Classes in ceramics, macrame, and other activities for senior citizens are meeting a need in several communities. Many groups are involved ecumenically in their towns with Congregate Feeding and Meals on Wheels.

A report blank was sent to every branch in the diocese and your president was asked to reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of her group. Many failed to fill in this data, but enough did respond to give me some cross section of opinion. These reports underscored a condition that I have been sensitive to for some time. Looking at the diocese as a whole, the Churchwomen are strong on projects, but weak in the areas of study and spiritual growth. I congratulate you on the good work that is done as the result of your projects, but this is not enough. If we believe that our primary goal is "to know the Christ and to make Him known" we must give a significant amount of our time to study and the nurture of the spirit. It is this side of our life together that can make a difference in the kind of ministry we practice.

The need for moments of silence in our lives is, in my opinion, one of the most needed ingredients for an abundant life in this part of the world and in this century. We are awakened in the morning by an alarm clock, followed by the news (often bad) on radio or TV. This same noise accompanies us at mealtime, and is often interrupted by a ringing telephone. We get into our automobiles and the radio is on as the motor starts. We never sit quietly in a room where a TV or stereo is present without tuning in. We frequently try to read and listen at the same time. And then we wonder why we are a population of nervous, up-tight people.

Haven't we all experienced that special sense of peace that comes in the early hours following an immobilizing snow storm—a hush in the night. That sense of quiet in an early morning or late evening walk on the beach, especially out of season, or fishing in a quiet, still pond. Such experiences reinforce my belief that we should continue to make available some training in the art of meditation and reflection.

It is not enough to know Christ in silence, we need to move out and experience Christ in community. The church can take a major role in providing us with the community of support and of sharing. This comes as we work together in small groups and in the larger act of worshipping together.

We all know individuals whom we admire and consider to be great Christians. These persons have arrived at this state by continued hard work and discipline and through a system of priorities. We do not usually develop strong roots of faith overnight. We must begin with ourselves if we want to see our churches become strong communities of Christians.

I review the past year with thanksgiving and a sense of joy. My calendar has been quite full and there have been harassed and anxious times, but always your support and enthusiasm have come through. I look to the future with confidence and hope, knowing that the great things you are doing will continue.

May God's blessing rest on each of you.

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1974 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1974 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements as a whole.

“Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.”

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Rt. Rev. John Maury Allin, D.D., Presiding Bishop

General Convention: The governing body of the Church in the United States. Comprised of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, clerical and lay. Meets every three years.

Triennial: The meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen held simultaneously with General Convention.

General Church Program: The schedule of work adopted by General Convention to further the Church's Mission.

Executive Council: The Executive body of the Protestant Episcopal Church which carries out the Program of the Church between General Conventions.

Province: A number of Dioceses and Missionary Districts, adjacently located. There are nine provinces in the United States. The Diocese of North Carolina belongs to the Fourth Province, known as the Sewanee Province. The work of the province is educational and promotional.

Diocese: A group of parishes and missions under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. The Diocese of North Carolina has 60 parishes and 56 missions. See the Constitution and By-Laws in this Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in this Diocese.

Convocation: A number of parishes and missions within a given area in a diocese. There are five convocations in the Diocese of North Carolina. See the Constitution, Article X, in the Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Convocations in the Diocese.

Parish and Mission: A fellowship of redeemed people doing God's work under the leadership and direction of a priest. A parish is self-supporting, whereas a mission receives support from the diocese.

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. D. JAMES COLEMAN, JR., SECRETARY
800 Macon Place, Raleigh 27609

RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN INDIVIDUAL

1. You will be strengthened in offering help to others by participating fully in the devotional life of your parish.

2. Seek to enrich your own spiritual depth by following a Rule of Life, such as daily prayer and devotional reading, meditation and Bible study, daily surrender of self to God to be used as a channel for His service, and regular rededication to Christ through the Holy Communion.

3. Build up your own personal devotional library of prayers, books, pamphlets, poems, hymns and tapes.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS BRANCH SECRETARY

You have been assigned a particular sphere of work. You should not let it become separated from the work of the others on the Board. All work of the women should be at the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Keep your Board ever mindful of its reason for being, by seeing that worship is an integral part of all planning and work. It would be well to allow for a moment of prayer, either silent or oral, before taking final action on any matter, in order that each member may seek our Lord's will. The few minutes required for this practice could transform a group to being "the body of Christ" in a very real sense.

1. Lead the devotions at the Board meetings or arrange for someone else to do so.

2. Plan, with the Devotional Life Chairman in each chapter, a devotion related to the study program.

3. Plan Quiet Days, Retreats, Schools of Prayer, Corporate Communion, World Day of Prayer observance, the formation of Bible study-prayer groups.

4. Worship and prayer should be the subject of at least one program during the year. Plan this in advance with the program committee.

5. Attend the Convocational Workshop on Devotional Life.

6. Cooperate with your rector and secretary of Christian Education in maintaining a track rack.

7. Contact your Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life for any assistance.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

MRS. KENNETH T. KNIGHT, SECRETARY
2620 Wells Avenue, Raleigh 27608

The song, "Soldiers of the Cross" asks us, "If you love Him, why not serve Him?" Christian Social Relations—our service to God is an "outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace." If we know we are His and He is ours, we will not be satisfied if we are not serving Him. We will be constantly seeking His purpose for our lives and acting accordingly. This necessitates listening for and being open to His direction.

There is need everywhere. Everywhere we see and hear about the poor, the oppressed, the burdened, the cast down, and the hungry. Everywhere people are lonely and sick in body, mind, and spirit. We have but to tune in to their needs, and be ready to accept God's leadership as to how we can best serve our brothers and ultimately Him. One thing we can be certain of, if we are serving God in the right way, it will be fun. If we will only let Him, He will guide us in paths of service that will utilize our talents and alleviate the needs around us at the same time. Service should never be a drudgery. It should always be a joy; if it is not, there is something basically lacking in our relationship with God.

The duty of the Christian Social Relations secretary in each branch is twofold. On the one hand, she should point out the needs in the church, community, diocese, and world that cry out for the Christian's help. On the other hand, she should be in close touch with the members of her own branch. She should know each one as well as possible, what her talents are, and where she might serve most happily, and suggest areas of service if a churchwoman seems to need direction.

In the past, Episcopal Churchwomen have spoken to countless needs, they should continue to do so. Keep on raising money through your bazaars, bridge benefits, carnivals, A.B.C. sales, etc., for world hunger—one half of the world's 3.7 billion people are hungry. Keep on visiting the lonely in prisons, rest homes, half-way houses, and rehabilitation homes, and the mentally and physically ill. Keep on caring for the mentally retarded, alcoholics, migrants, drug addicts, lepers, and foreigners in our midst. Never forget the children at Episcopal Child Services, Tree House, and refugees of the world. If the need you tackle is more than you can handle by yourselves, team up with other Christian groups, or with your local Social Services department, Community Action Agency, Salvation Army or the like. Churchwomen United is an ecumenical group that is active in many, many communities. Their programs are meaningful and far-reaching. Keep in close touch with your legislators, push them to vote for measures that will benefit mankind.

Please call on me if I can help you in planning your CSR program. I have many addresses of places you can send money, clothing, blankets, stamps, and other expressions of your love. I have many brochures that outline the work of organizations such as CROP, Laubach Literacy, Christian Children's Fund, etc. Remember always as you serve that, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

MISSIONS

MRS. RALSTON F. WELCH, SECRETARY
321 Ardmore Drive, High Point 27262

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. Use the prayer manual RESPONSE, a devotional guide, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.

2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through your Diocesan pledge. This will enable the churchwomen on the Diocesan level to accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggested projects will be sent upon request.

3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. Ralston F. Welch, Secretary (see above address) and mailed to her by NOVEMBER 15.

4. By action of the 1975 Annual Meeting the 1976 Epiphany offering will go to The Rt. Rev. Philip Riddsdale of Boga-Zaire (formerly Belgian Congo) The Epiphany offering will surely be used to the best advantage of all concerned. Please encourage your chapter to seriously consider participating in this offering. Send this offering to the Diocesan treasurer, her address is listed earlier in this handbook.

5. Many chapters have expressed interest in assigning a specific missionary to each convocation. The purpose is to concentrate their monies, prayers etc. on one or two people and become more closely involved with them.

Below are the 1975-1976 assignments. You will see all but the smallest convocation have two names. One is an active missionary and one retired.

NORTHEAST—Jocelyn Gordon, Rt. Rev. W. J. Gordon

CENTRAL—Rev. Mark Boesser, Miss Rachel Wolff

NORTHWEST—Sister Adelaide, Mrs. Harvey Simmonds

SOUTHWEST—Rev. James Fortune, Mrs. Henry Chapman

SANDHILLS—Rev. Richard Draper

6. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate. Please do your part to make this a successful year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. CHARLES AYCOCK MCLENDON
2318 Kirkpatrick Place, Greensboro, N. C. 27408

"And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and the fear of the Lord." This moving passage from Isaiah II:2 applies not only at Confirmation, but to us as concerned leaders in Christian Education as we venture into the basic interests and needs of our lives as well as of others in the world today. There are many sources for what wisdom we need and we should explore them in many ways. Attendance at the Spring Workshops will have provided many of us with ideas for study, books to order and to consider, and suggestions from other branches for successful programs. Just the idea of congenial fellowship among Episcopal women at this time of meditation and communion can be inspiring for our future experience. If I or any of the Diocesan officers can provide you with any help with themes on Missions, Christian Social Relations, etc., please don't hesitate to call on us. Participation in the Annual Conference whether at Kanuga or the Seminar at Quail Roost in Durham, N. C. is also recommended because new ideas and formats are often generated here. This opportunity for learning and relaxing in a beautiful setting can be invaluable.

A theme for your new year may be developed in many ways and we should remember that books are not our sole resource—people, communities, multi-media, church and learning institutions are also at our fingertips when we look for ways to present some facet of Christian Education. It is also important to remember that programs need not be a static experience each year—they can be varied as women are varied and presented in different ways by the individual speaker or by panel discussion, by them teaching (perhaps by one Branch member and one outsider from the community) or by round robin contributions. Once you have selected your program topic, spend some time planning an unusual form of presentation.

Keep in touch with new books and new ideas by reading faithfully your copies of THE EPISCOPALIAN, THE LIVING CHURCH, and THE CHURCHMAN. When you go to Kanuga, Quail Roost, Richmond or Atlanta remember to browse in the appropriate bookstores for new publications. Just don't neglect taking a reading of what your women really need and want—some may want to make in-depth studies of certain books of the Bible once again or an understanding of charismatic movements; some may want Episcopal Church history and the current trends of today. Circulate not only in bookstores and libraries but among your women, to know them and find direction for what we all need in furthering our concern for others—hopefully in renewing our commitment together in faith and love of God and his son Jesus Christ!

I would like to alert you to certain authors of religious prose and poetry; some contemporary, others familiar and classic for your inspiration and enjoyment!

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. TYNDALL P. HARRIS
Rt. 1, Box 152, Pittsboro 27312

The United Thank Offering began in 1886 as the United Offering with a Triennial Collection of $82.71. Through the years the purpose of the U.T.O. has remained constant, "Given in thankfulness for the everyday blessings of life—used to provide blessings for others." The Offering has grown until the grants in 1974 totaled $1,354, 283.35.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE U.T.O. TREASURER

PARISH

1) To be thoroughly informed about the purposes and pleasures of participation in the United Thank Offering, use your blue box and the U.T.O. prayer daily, and provide information concerning the grants made each year.

2) Ask your branch Christian Education Secretary to save at least one program a year for the U.T.O. Use posters, film strips, plays, panel discussions, speakers, or any innovative and informative approach to publicize the United Thank Offering. Your Convocation Treasurer has two new film strips for use in the branches.

3) Attend the Workshop in the Spring to learn new ideas and share your successes with others.

4) At least six weeks before the Ingathering order from Seabury Bookstore (815 Second Avenue, New York, New York 10017) sufficient blue boxes, envelopes, grant lists and prayer cards for each woman in your parish. (Remember - no money is ever taken out of the offering for expenses). Any expense must be borne by your branch.

5) Arrange with your Rector for the Spring and Fall Ingatherings (on or near the Feast of the Annunciation and St. Luke's Day); maybe the Rector will preach a sermon on the subject the Sunday before. Be sure to give the minister a copy of the U.T.O. prayer to use at the Ingathering. Ask your Rector to let the ladies take up the offering and ask a sufficient number to do this at the service.

6) Collect and count the offering. Three weeks after the Ingathering send one check to your Convocation Treasurer along with a record of the number of envelopes sent out, number returned, and approximate number attending the service.

7) Arrange with Diocesan U.T.O. Treasurer to use U.T.O. Alms Basin if your branch would like it.

CONVOCATION

To keep accurate records of the offerings and participation of each branch; to send a copy to the Diocesan U.T.O. Treasurer along with one check covering total within one month of the Ingathering. (You may have to send another check if there are some late offerings). To mail film strips upon request to the branches in your convocation.

DIOCESAN

1) To be available to Branches to help them learn more about the United Thank Offering, to attend all board meetings, conduct workshops, keep in touch with provincial and national representatives to acquire needed information.

2) To receive the Ingathering monies from the Convocations and to send one check to the National Treasurer; to keep accurate records of each church; to send an annual financial report to the E.C.W. Treasurer and general reports for the annual meeting, yearbook, and N. C. Churchman. To send spring and fall letters to all branches with news, reminders and information concerning the approaching Ingatherings, and to answer all correspondence promptly.

3) To arrange for representatives of the different convocations to take up the Diocesan Ingathering Offering during the Holy Communion service at our Annual Meeting, and to see that the Celebrant has a copy of the U.T.O. prayer.

4) To take care of the U.T.O. Alms Basin and to lend it to any church requesting it.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. JOHN HOBART
1009 Chestnut Drive, Smithfield 27577

PROMOTION

MRS. MELVIN LEWIS FINCH, JR.
2110 St. Mary's Street, Raleigh 27608

The essential duty of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary is to promote the ideas and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is her duty to keep all churchwomen informed of things to come and to report on noteworthy activities which have taken place. She is available to assist branch officers in promoting individual programs as well as diocesan sponsored ones. The effectiveness of this job depends somewhat on her being informed by local churchwomen about their endeavors.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that someone is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your diocesan secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. JULIUS CROWELL, CHAIRMAN
311 Juanita Avenue, Hamlet 28345

Altar Work is rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.

2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.
6. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need.
7. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. GEORGE B. S. HALE
 2008 Rangecrest Drive
 Raleigh 27612

The Church Periodical Club, serving the ministry of the printed word since 1888, is the only organization in the Episcopal Church devoted solely to supplying free printed material to those who cannot otherwise obtain it. Its steadily expanding, adaptable program is unique among the churches in giving free materials to responsible recipients they themselves specify. It is supported by contributions and most of its work is done by volunteers.

CPC functions on all levels, nationally, world-wide, locally—in parishes, communities, dioceses. Religious, educational, technical, recreational books, magazines, leaflets are provided for the most remote places and for nearest neighbors. Needs that exceed local resources are referred to National Books Fund.

This fund is directed by a committee of experienced volunteers, meeting to evaluate each request. Most are granted as far as funds permit. National Books Fund projects have financed a translation on the Prayer Book in Malay to giving medical journals to the stations served by the S. S. Hope.

How can CPC become alive in your Parish?

1. Pray for the work of CPC for guidance asking God to direct you in spreading the Good News with the printed word.

2. Plan to publicize the work of CPC to all men, women and children in your parish by observing the first Sunday in October. (CPC Sunday)

3. Plan to educate your parish on CPC Sunday in the importance of continuing to supply printed materials to people around the world.

4. Use your parish bulletin and meetings in your parish to remind them of CPC Sunday in October. Use the CPC prayers at all services and meetings that week in your parish.

In our diocese, the CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a diocesan Director of CPC and carried out by CPC secretaries in the branches. The Secretary of Missions could also serve as CPC Secretary in those churches of small membership.

NOTES:

All contributions should be sent to the Diocesan Director of CPC. All contributions should be made by check payable to Church Periodical Club. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. Enclose a memo showing the source so proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the CPC secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1976-77
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina show many signs of strengthening their leadership and their organization and their contribution to the life of the Church in this Diocese. I am personally grateful for the progress that the Churchwomen are making and the steps they are taking to stay related not only to the place of women but to the place of the Church in the world.

I strongly urge all women of the Diocese to support the ECW and I hope that the rectors and vicars of the various congregations will give to the officers of their ECW support and encouragement.

Faithfully, Your Bishop

PRAYERS

RENEWAL

Almighty God, by whose Holy Spirit your children are led to acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; grant that this same Spirit may so dwell in us that we may be daily renewed, and manifest in our lives the Love that reaches out in blessing to all people. Empower us to help build up your Kingdom on earth to your honor and glory. We ask this, gracious Father, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we work to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant) Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be directed to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray.

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee,
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.
Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Bishop Fraser, Delegates and Guests —

To be meeting here at St. Philip's for the 94th Annual Meeting of The Episcopal Churchwomen has particular meaning to me. This church has played a significant role in my life with the Episcopal Churchwomen. In 1951, being a relatively new "Tar Heel", I attended my first Annual Meeting in this parish as a visitor. Eleven years later, at Annual Meeting 1962, it was here that I was installed to my first diocesan office as Secretary of Devotional Life. Now I have returned for this final meeting as your president.

There is a saying—"never look back". However, there are times, if we do not dwell in the past, that it is helpful to look back in order to clear our perspective for the present and the future. In preparing for this meeting I spent some time reading back through my files of old yearbooks. These are fairly complete over the past ten years and then hit or miss to some dated 1914 & 15. In reading through these books the same words of renewal, challenge, inspiration and joyful service are expressed. In all these years the message comes through loud and clear that our reason for being the Episcopal Churchwomen is our desire to serve Our Lord.

The theme for this meeting is "Three Faces of Mission". In the next few hours we are together we will be hearing addresses and reports that express our mission on world, diocesan and parish level. As we listen let us seek a true understanding of the opportunity the Episcopal Churchwomen gives us to serve the Lord in a special way.

As time has dictated a shorter, more compact meeting in recent years, it has been necessary to eliminate from our agenda the reports from the Diocesan board members. These reports are contained in your packet and I urge you to read them and to circulate them in your branch when you return home. It is especially important that they get into the hands of those persons responsible for specific areas of work. The success of the Episcopal Churchwomen on Diocesan level is due to the commitment and hard work of these ladies and I am indeed grateful for each of them.

Four years ago, when I was asked to accept the nomination as President-elect, I was one of those skeptics, who questioned the survival of the Churchwomen as an organization. At that time we had been through some difficult years in the entire church and during this period many of our branches disbanded. The tide has turned and many of those groups who disbanded found no satisfactory way to express their ministry. Thanks be to God! They have returned with new vigor and vitality to being a part of our diocesan organization. Some ten groups have restored their membership over the past three years and we know of three or four others seriously considering this action. I also, regretfully, know of some branches who are hanging on only by a thread and I know of no easy way to help them, for the motivation "to be" must come from within.

A few highlights from our year—

Our second Quail Roost Seminar was a huge success. So much so that we feel we must limit the number of commuters as well as the residents for the seminar scheduled for October 25th-27th to be led by the Rev. C. Fitzsimons Allison, with the Rev. William Wells as chaplain.

The January retreat held at the Terraces had every bed filled plus several ladies from Penick Home who could come in for the sessions.

Our spring convocation workshops continue to be well received and are meeting a real need. However, your board has some concerns about these and will be working on ways to improve them. One concern is that there is little opportunity to see the total picture of our work. We also feel concern that although some board members have a good attendance at their workshop of 12 to 20 persons, there are others having only 1 or 2. We need to tell the story of the Episcopal Churchwomen as an interacting program. More inspiration and enthusiasm may come as a result of grouping interests such as Missions and the Church Periodical Club, Devotional Life and Christian Education, Christian Ministries and Christian Social Relations, etc.

Although we are aware that this is a time of inflation, the figures that tell the story of stewardship of the Churchwomen are impressive. In 1975 over $118,000 went through the hands of the treasurer and other appropriate officers of your diocesan board.

The United Thank Offering showed an increase of almost $5000 over the figure for 1974. The amount of $34,496.10 is one of the highest, if not the highest ever recorded for this Diocese. The total national grants made by the United Thank Offering last year amounted to over 1.5 million dollars. We, in this Diocese, are grateful for the $25,000 grant made to Tree House in Chapel Hill.

Our gifts to the Missionary Christmas Fund amounted to $2,213.50. This gave checks of over $200 to each of the missionaries affiliated with our Diocese. The letters of thanks received in response to these gifts are heartwarming as they tell of how this money was put to work helping others.

The Church Periodical Club Offering amounted to $1,452.68. Our budget of $21,000 was met and our special giving amounted to $49,779.81.

Your stewardship speaks for your understanding of the "Three Faces of Mission".

The word change is also one that runs through the history of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is a good word for it indicates our awareness of the world we live in and our willingness to adapt to the requirements of life in 1976, which is totally different from that lived in 1883, when the Auxiliary was just beginning in this Diocese.

A number of changes have been made in the past three years. More will be recommended for your adoption tomorrow. As we look to the future we know there will continue to be a need for change.

On leaving office I feel I must make one recommendation. This has come as a result of a great deal of thought and the actual experience of serving for three years as president. The life styles of this last quarter of the 20th century are putting demands on our lives that must be faced realistically. I sincerely recommend a serious, in-depth study of tenure of office for the diocesan board. Three years is a very long time for the total commitment this work requires. A two year term of office would seem more reasonable, and would help us to continue to attract more of our younger women, who do have many demands on their time, but who have so much to contribute. Change in tenure would lead to change in constitution and could lead to change in structure. Many dioceses have moved successfully to the two year term, so my recommendation is not unprecedented.

And so now I come to the end of three years. I am deeply grateful for the privilege that has been mine in serving as your president. What has been given to me far outweighs the little I have contributed. No words can express my heartfelt thanks for the support and devotion of my husband, my family, and all of you over the past three years. St. Paul has some beautiful words that speak so well for what I feel in my heart.

"I thank my God whenever I think of you; and every time I pray for all of you. I pray with joy, remembering how you have helped to spread the Good News from the day you first heard it right up to the present. I am quite certain that the One who began this good work in you will see that it is finished. It is only natural that I should feel like this, since you have shared the privileges which have been mine. You have a permanent place in my heart, and God knows how much I will miss you. My prayer is that your love for each other may increase more and more and never stop improving your knowledge and deepening your perception." (Philippians 1:3-10)

Thank You

ACCEPTANCE SPEECH, April 28, 1976

We rejoice that the Episcopal Churchwomen have had the inspired leadership of Rose Flannagan for the past three years. It has been a joyful experience for those of us who have been privileged to serve on the board with her. We will be ever grateful she put her special talents to work in this area of the church. Will you please stand and join me in thanking Rose with love for her devotion and her total commitment to us.

As I have listened to our speakers on "Three Faces of Mission," I am more convinced than ever that God does indeed call us all to be his missionaries. For we are first Christians, then we are Episcopal Churchwomen. And our mission as both is to reveal the love of Jesus Christ so that all people may come to know Him and to live in the light of His presence.

For us to more freely and fully do the task we have been called by our Lord to do, we must have our own daily renewal through study of the Bible and our time to communicate with our Lord through prayer and meditation. Otherwise, how will we know what He expects us to do? And we must not turn away from this beautiful world God created for us, which today is torn asunder by war, injustice, immorality, suffering, and oppression. This is our challenge to serve—to relieve the suffering, to care for the poor, to help the disabled, to feed the hungry, to support the elderly, to love those who are hard to love.

One might ask, what are our important reasons for being Episcopal Churchwomen? To know our Lord more intimately, to bring others to Him and, being empowered by the Holy Spirit to be faithful stewards in serving Him. In planning your work for next year, I would ask you to hold fast to the idea that branch meetings should revolve around worship and study and only then go forth, renewed, to serve.

We are living in a fast moving, fast changing world: a fact, of which, we are acutely aware. It is often difficult to adjust to the pace and to keep our vision clear and broad. I am reminded of the story of the differences between the frog and the bird. The frog is content and happy to live in his mudhole and never see beyond the edge of the mud. The bird, meanwhile, soars freely in the heavens above the overall scheme of life, his vision limited only by the horizon. And so as changes take place in the church, let us not be limited to the confines of a mudhole, but like the bird, keep our vision broad and clear.

I look forward to serving as president of the Episcopal Churchwomen with joy, in the knowledge that with the grace of God, your love and support, we shall continue to be a living and viable branch of the Lord's vine.

Mrs. Herman Salinger, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolution:

TO CREATE A DIOCESAN COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE FEASIBILITY OF ESTABLISHING A CONFERENCE AND CAMP CENTER

WHEREAS, the greatest care should be taken by the Church to deepen, to extend, and to nurture the spiritual life of the young people in our Diocese, and

WHEREAS, we believe that Christian camp experiences are vital if we are to keep our young people involved in the Episcopal Church, and

WHEREAS, our Diocese lacks conference facilities to answer the growing desire for retreats, conferences, and seminars among its laity and clergy, thereby necessitating use of facilities in other dioceses or in secular settings, and

WHEREAS, the Youth Committee has gone on record asking reconsideration of the possibility of acquiring a camp and conference center for the Diocese of North Carolina, and

WHEREAS, the Terraces cannot physically meet the needs for the kind of continuing education programs now sought by the laity and the clergy, and

WHEREAS, Kanuga Camps and Conference Center is too distant for the people of our Diocese to utilize for short-term meetings and is therefore impractical as a truly diocesan center, and

WHEREAS, the Committee on the State of the Church in its report to the 160th Diocesan Convention called on the Diocesan Council to make a thorough study of the feasibility of such a conference and camp center, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Episcopal Churchwomen request the Bishop and the Diocesan Council to appoint a broad-based Committee, of which two shall be members of the Episcopal Churchwomen, and which will be funded up to $500.00 by the Episcopal Churchwomen, to make an in-depth study of the feasibility of establishing a conference and camp center for the Diocese of North Carolina along with a recommended plan for action, and that this committee report to the Diocesan Council at its fall meeting, Wednesday, September 8, 1976.

This Resolution was adopted.

A Resolution pertaining to election was referred to the ECW Diocesan Board for further study and was not acted on at Annual Meeting.

Mrs. Gerald Barrett, Treasurer, presented the budget as proposed by the Finance Committee. The 1977 budget of $21,000.00 was adopted on motion of the Treasurer. Mrs. Barrett's motion that the Intercessory Offering go to St. Mary's High School Library in the Philippines was adopted, as was her motion for the disbursement of the $185.69 surplus to the Rev. Marvin Perry, Pocos de Caldas, Brazil for Prayer Books.

Mrs. Barrett, Chairman of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws, presented the recommended change in the Constitution and By-Laws, as follows:

Change in By-Law Number 3 as follows:

Each Branch may be represented by the President and two other delegates, (appointed by the President or elected by the Branch), each having a vote. A Branch to have voting privileges must have paid a pledge to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Budget for the preceding year. The motion was seconded and carried by a vote of 77 for and 49 against.

The Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Fraser addressed the Meeting on "Mission at Parish Level".

Mrs. William Long, Chairman of the Courtesy Committee, presented her report. A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Flannagan for the excellent and inspiring job she has done as President during the past three years.

The Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Fraser installed the new officers of the Churchwomen of the Diocese. Mrs. Flannagan presented Mrs. Evans with the Cross and Gavel, symbols of her new office as president of the Churchwomen, and Mrs. Evans responded with a speech of acceptance. She announced that Annual Meeting 1977 will be held at St. Timothy's Church, Wilson.

The Rev. John W. S. Davis, Rector of Holy Innocents, Henderson, offered closing prayers. Bishop Fraser pronounced the benediction. With the singing of Hymn 363, the Annual Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Madam President, Delegates and Guests to the 94th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, meeting in St. Philip's Durham:

The three faces of Mission, as presented to us by the Rev. Samuel Van Culin, are: RE-NEWAL, CHALLENGE, and JOYFUL SERVICE.

These three faces have been abundantly evident in this Annual Meeting—A renewal of our commitment as Churchwomen; a challenge to us for our future; and joyful service shown by St. Philip's, our host church, St. Stephen's, and the other churches of Durham. On behalf of everyone present we would like to express our thanks to these ladies and men.

No report of this Courtesy Committee would be complete without special thanks to—and appreciation of—the three past years of joyful service that Rose Flannagan has given us during her term as our President. She has "truly served the Lord in a very special way".

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. C. L. Sweeney, Jr., Chairman

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1975 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1975 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements as a whole.

“Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry.”

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

The Rt. Rev. John Maury Allin, D.D., Presiding Bishop

General Convention: The governing body of the Church in the United States. Comprised of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, clerical and lay. Meets every three years.

Triennial: The meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen held simultaneously with General Convention.

General Church Program: The schedule of work adopted by General Convention to further the Church's Mission.

Executive Council: The Executive body of the Protestant Episcopal Church which carries out the Program of the Church between General Conventions.

Province: A number of Dioceses and Missionary Districts, adjacently located. There are nine provinces in the United States. The Diocese of North Carolina belongs to the Fourth Province, known as the Sewanee Province. The work of the province is educational and promotional.

Diocese: A group of parishes and missions under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. The Diocese of North Carolina has 63 parishes and 48 missions. See the Constitution and By-Laws in this Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in this Diocese.

Convocation: A number of parishes and missions within a given area in a diocese. There are five convocations in the Diocese of North Carolina. See the Constitution, Article X, in the Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Convocations in the Diocese.

Parish and Mission: A fellowship of redeemed people doing God's work under the leadership and direction of a priest. A parish is self-supporting, whereas a mission receives support from the diocese.

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. D. JAMES COLEMAN, JR., SECRETARY
800 Macon Place, Raleigh 27609

RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN INDIVIDUAL

1. You will be strengthened in offering help to others by participating fully in the devotional life of your parish.

2. Seek to enrich your own spiritual depth by following a Rule of Life, such as daily prayer and devotional reading, meditation and Bible study, daily surrender of self to God to be used as a channel for His service, and regular rededication to Christ through the Holy Communion.

3. Build up your own personal devotional library of prayers, books, pamphlets, poems, hymns and tapes.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS BRANCH SECRETARY

You have been assigned a particular sphere of work. You should not let it become separated from the work of the others on the Board. All work of the women should be at the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Keep your Board ever mindful of its reason for being, by seeing that worship is an integral part of all planning and work. It would be well to allow for a moment of prayer, either silent or oral, before taking final action on any matter, in order that each member may seek our Lord's will. The few minutes required for this practice could transform a group to being "the body of Christ" in a very real sense.

1. Lead the devotions at the Board meetings or arrange for someone else to do so.

2. Plan, with the Devotional Life Chairman in each chapter, a devotion related to the study program.

3. Plan Quiet Days, Retreats, Schools of Prayer, Corporate Communion, World Day of Prayer observance, the formation of Bible study-prayer groups.

4. Worship and prayer should be the subject of at least one program during the year. Plan this in advance with the program committee.

5. Attend the Convocational Workshop on Devotional Life.

6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life for any assistance.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

4. Conduct a workshop at each Convocational Spring Planning Day.

5. Assist chairman of Diocesan Christian Social Ministries when needed.
6. Serve on Board of Church Women United in N. C.
7. Attend all ECW Diocesan Board meetings, Seminars and Annual Meetings.
8. Send copies of annual report to chairman of the Annual Meeting in time for the report to go into delegates' packets.

Responsibilities—Branch

1. Consult with Rector of the Parish about the needs within the Parish and with the County Social Services Department about needs in the community.
2. Give serious consideration to suggestions from Diocesan CSR Secretary about Diocesan and World Service.
3. Plan a comprehensive program to include service in the Parish, the Community, the Diocese, and the World.
4. Involve as many ECW members as possible, in order that each may use her special talents.
5. Attend Parish ECW Board meetings and keep them informed of the work of the CSR Committee.
6. Use Bulletin Boards, Newsletters, Sunday Bulletins or any other available means to keep all the church members aware of the opportunities of service.
7. Serve on the Christian Social Ministries Committee if your Parish has one.
8. Plan ahead. Don't wait until the year's activities are started before having definite projects to suggest. It is important to start early in the fall.
9. Have information available concerning worthy causes on which to spend the money raised by the Ways and Means Committee.
10. Attend Convocation meetings, Spring Planning Day, Annual Meeting, Church Women United meetings (if your community has this organization) and any local meetings of other groups that are concerned with Social problems.
11. Inform your Branch of the needs at Penick Home and Thompson Child Care Services.
12. Cooperate with other Episcopal Churches and churches of other denominations for projects too big for one Parish.

MISSIONS

MRS. RALSTON F. WELCH, SECRETARY
321 Ardmore Drive, High Point 27262

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church. Use the prayer manual RESPONSE, a devotional guide, including Bible readings, commentary, and information from each area remembered in the daily intercessions. Order from Forward Movement Publications, 412 Sycamore St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. $1.50 per year.
2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through your Diocesan pledge. This will enable the churchwomen on the Diocesan level to accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggested projects will be sent upon request.
3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this Diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. Ralston F. Welch, Secretary (see above address) and mailed to her by NOVEMBER 15.
4. By action of the 1976 Annual Meeting, the 1977 Epiphany offering will go to St. Mary's

High School Library in the Philippines to help replace the library which was destroyed by fire. Please encourage your chapter to seriously consider participating in this offering. Send it to the Diocesan Treasurer.

5. Many chapters have expressed interest in assigning a specific missionary to each convocation. The purpose is to concentrate their monies, prayers etc. on one or two people and become more closely involved with them.

Below are the 1976-1977 assignments. You will see all but the smallest convocation have two names. One is an active missionary and one retired.

NORTHEAST—Jocelyn Gordon, The Rev. Richard Draper

CENTRAL—The Rev. Mark Boesser, Miss Rachel Wolff

NORTHWEST—Sister Adelaide, Mrs. Harvey Simmonds

SOUTHWEST—The Rev. James Fortune, Mrs. Henry Chapman

Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate. Please do your part to make this a successful year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. THOMAS J. RANDALL
923 W. Horah Street, Salisbury 28144

"And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and the fear of the Lord." This moving passage from Isaiah II:2 applies not only at Confirmation, but to us as concerned leaders in Christian Education as we venture into the basic interests and needs of our lives as well as of others in the world today. There are many sources for what wisdom we need and we should explore them in many ways. Attendance at the Spring Workshops will have provided many of us with ideas for study, books to order and to consider, and suggestions from other branches for successful programs. Just the idea of congenial fellowship among Episcopal women at this time of meditation and communion can be inspiring for our future experience. If I or any of the Diocesan officers can provide you with any help with themes on Missions, Christian Social Relations, etc., please don't hesitate to call on us. Participation in the Annual Conference whether at Kanuga or the Seminar at Quail Roost in Durham, N. C. is also recommended because new ideas and formats are often generated here. This opportunity for learning and relaxing in a beautiful setting can be invaluable.

A theme for your new year may be developed in many ways and we should remember that books are not our sole resource—people, communities, multi-media, church and learning institutions are also at our fingertips when we look for ways to present some facet of Christian Education. It is also important to remember that programs need not be a static experience each year—they can be varied as women are varied and presented in different ways by the individual speaker or by panel discussion, by them teaching (perhaps by one Branch member and one outsider from the community) or by round robin contributions. Once you have selected your program topic, spend some time planning an unusual form of presentation.

Keep in touch with new books and new ideas by reading faithfully your copies of The Episcopalian, The Living Church, and The Churchman. When you go to Kanuga, Quail Roost, Richmond or Atlanta remember to browse in the appropriate bookstores for new publications. Just don't neglect taking a reading of what your women really need and want—some may want to make in-depth studies of certain books of the Bible once again or an understanding of charismatic movements; some may want Episcopal Church history and the current trends of today. Circulate not only in bookstores and libraries but among your women, to know them and find direction for what we all need in furthering our concern for others—hopefully in renewing our commitment together in faith and love of God and his son Jesus Christ!

I would like to alert you to certain authors of religious prose and poetry; some contemporary, others familiar and classic for your inspiration and enjoyment!

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

1009 Chestnut Street, Smithfield 27577

The purpose of this office is to give direction in two areas important to Episcopal Churchwomen. This past year has been spent listening and redefining the task of this office. During the next year, it is hoped that many new ideas will come to this section of the Episcopal Churchwomen. Please feel free to call Diocesan Secretary of Christian Ministries and College Work with your suggestions.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

1. Investigate vocations within the church with emphasis on opportunities for women. There are many careers available—Ministries to minority groups, Higher Education, Hospital, Recreation, Orders, Chaplaincy, Nurses, Christian Education, Blind, Deaf, Retarded, National Institution for Lay Ministry (Church Army). This information on careers is found in Episcopal Church Annual.

2. Encourage Churchwomen to participate in the Ministry of the Laity. The opportunities are different in every church and this office hopes to encourage women to serve in various areas such as Vestry persons, Lay Readers, Acolytes, teachers, Visiting Committee Members, and Members of Altar Guild.

3. Express a special interest in Seminary students that go to Seminary from local church.

COLLEGE WORK

The college work section of this office seeks to maintain a relationship with Episcopal students.

1. Students who are away at college—

a. Keep in touch with students. Make a file on each student and send birthday, Christmas, and Easter cards, newsletters, etc.

b. Arrange get-together or honor the students at a regular church occasion such as a coffee hour after church service.

c. Plan a Sunday for college students and use them as acolytes, lay readers and ushers.

2. Students who come to local colleges—

a. Check with local colleges and determine what the relationship can be between Churchwomen and Episcopal students.

b. Encourage students to be a part of church program.

3. College chaplain will visit and explain their role on college campus. Invite a chaplain to speak at Churchwomen's meeting or plan a special church service for the presentation.

PROMOTION

MRS. JOHN M. CANNON
Rt. 7, Box 243, Raleigh 27609

The essential duty of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary is to promote the ideas and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is her duty to keep all churchwomen informed of things to come and to report on noteworthy activities which have taken place. She is available to assist branch officers in promoting individual programs as well as diocesan sponsored ones. The effectiveness of this job depends somewhat on her being informed by local churchwomen about their endeavors.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that someone is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.

2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.

3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.

4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.

5. Inform other women in the Diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. JULIUS CROWELL, CHAIRMAN
 311 Juanita Avenue, Hamlet 28345

Altar Work is rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.
6. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need.
7. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. RALSTON WELCH
321 Ardmore Drive, High Point 27262

The Church Periodical Club, serving the ministry of the printed word since 1888, is the only organization in the Episcopal Church devoted solely to supplying free printed material to those who cannot otherwise obtain it. Its steadily expanding, adaptable program is unique among the churches in giving free materials to responsible recipients they themselves specify. It is supported by contributions and most of its work is done by volunteers.

CPC functions on all levels, nationally, world-wide, locally—in parishes, communities, dioceses. Religious, educational, technical, recreational books, magazines, leaflets are provided for the most remote places and for nearest neighbors. Needs that exceed local resources are referred to National Books Fund.

This fund is directed by a committee of experienced volunteers, meeting to evaluate each request. Most are granted as far as funds permit. National Books Fund projects have financed a translation of the Prayer Book in Malay to giving medical journals to the stations served by the S. S. Hope.

How can CPC become alive in your Parish?

1. Pray for the work of CPC for guidance asking God to direct you in spreading the Good News with the printed word.
2. Plan to publicize the work of CPC to all men, women and children in your parish by observing the first Sunday in October. (CPC Sunday)
3. Plan to educate your parish on CPC Sunday in the importance of continuing to supply printed materials to people around the world.
4. Use your parish bulletin and meetings in your parish to remind them of CPC Sunday in October. Use the CPC prayers at all services and meetings that week in your parish.

In our Diocese, the CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a Diocesan Director of CPC and carried out by CPC secretaries in the branches. The Secretary of Missions could also serve as CPC Secretary in those churches of small membership.

NOTES:

All contributions should be sent to the Diocesan Director of CPC. All contributions should be made by check payable to Church Periodical Club. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. Enclose a memo showing the source so proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the CPC secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1977-78
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

The Episcopal Churchwomen in the Diocese of North Carolina continue to gain strength. This was particularly noticeable at their last Annual Meeting and is apparent as I visit parishes around the diocese. This is largely due to the new perspective which the Episcopal Churchwomen have slowly been adopting, which is one of not only word but example, not only one of giving but serving, not only one of meeting but acting.

The world is sorely in need of Christian response and Christian witness and I am grateful for the new thrust of our Episcopal Churchwomen and rejoice in the progress which they are making.

Faithfully, Your Bishop

PRAYERS

RENEWAL

Almighty God, by whose Holy Spirit your children are led to acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; grant that this same Spirit may so dwell in us that we may be daily renewed, and manifest in our lives the Love that reaches out in blessing to all people. Empower us to help build up your Kingdom on earth to your honor and glory. We ask this, gracious Father, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we work to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant) Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be directed to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray.

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee,
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

95th Annual Meeting
Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina
St. Timothy's Church
Wilson, North Carolina
April 19, 1977

My Friends, What a Year This Has Been!

I am grateful to you and to our loving Lord for the privilege that is mine in serving as your president at this time in our history, and for having had the opportunity to be a part of some of our church's most historic moments. It has been a challenging year, filled with joy and happiness.

Last year I issued a call for a broader vision as we faced changes in the church—I heeded my own advice: I hope you have too! Because today we stand on the threshold of a new church—Post-Minneapolis. It is one we may not be comfortable with just yet, but there is an aura of excitement and expectancy as we begin to break out of our narrow confines and look to the future. This is not to say the change is without pain, heartache, or anguish—for these are very real and are present in the church. But traditionally churchwomen have been the innovators as well as the reconcilers, and we are called now to exercise both of these roles.

I urge you to keep an open mind as you study and use the new proposed prayer book. It seems prudent and wise to use it before judging it. Our service tonight will be the Holy Eucharist, Rite I from the New Book; I have every confidence you will experience the same majesty and beauty and reverence in this service that you have found in the Book of Common Prayer Service.

Also in Minneapolis, the church changed a two thousand year old tradition by opening the priesthood and episcopacy to women. We know there is still a threat of division in the church as a result of this action. There is also great frustration on the part of many of the ordained women who are encountering dwindling support from the very bishops and clergy who voted to open the priesthood to them. The trust of these women in the institutional church is shaken. They are a long way from the "Promised Land", they are, in fact, in the wilderness. It is hoped that Episcopal Churchwomen will search for ways to be supportive of all women as they exercise their ministries, both lay and ordained.

In January, I represented you in St. Louis at the Open Conference on the Ministry of Women, sponsored by the Task Force on Women of the Lay Ministries Committee of the National Church. This was an historic occasion because it was the first time in its history that the National Church has ever sponsored a meeting for women! The Episcopal Churchwomen who met there with this diverse group of women left with a determined effort to become more "a part of", rather than "apart from", their parish and Diocesan structures; to work for a more active voice in the policy and decision-making process of the church. I commend this action to you. If you do not have a liaison relationship with your vestry, then seek it. If your Episcopal Churchwomen committee chairmen do not serve on their counterpart parish committees, request that they be appointed. Many times this omission is merely an oversight on the part of the vestry. We are in some respects "apart-from" diocesan structure for rarely does a board member serve on her Counterpart Diocesan Committee. It is my hope that we will become a more integral part of the Diocese in this triennium: When we all work together, we strengthen the body of Christ.

In view of the changes taking place in the church relative to changing roles for women, it is interesting to note that Episcopal Churchwomen resolved their own identity problem at this triennial in Minneapolis and voted to continue their meetings. They adopted a purpose and an on-going structure and elected personnel to implement their plans. It is conceivable that the Episcopal Churchwomen may, in the future, cease to exist as a separate body within the church. However, today this organization is viable and provides the vehicle for people to come together to worship the Lord, to study, to experience Christian fellowship, to exercise their stewardship and to witness to God's love in serving others.

In the Diocese of North Carolina we are completing our 95th year and it is another year of successful witness on the part of thousands of women who find it satisfying and joyful to work together to further the mission of the church. We are aware that we are not responding to women in our church who are employed and therefore unable to participate in activities of the churchwomen. As I have criss-crossed the Diocese this year, I have been asked over and over to find a way to include working women in the overall picture of Churchwomen. After Annual Meeting, I will appoint an Ad-Hoc Committee to work with me in designing such a program. I do not promise instant success, but I do promise a beginning. We will seek advice from other Dioceses, from the Task Force on Women, and I solicit suggestions and ideas from all of you in attempting to solve a problem that is increasing and one that touches all of our branches, regardless of size.

In reviewing the year, no report to you would be complete without a resume of its highlights, and a glimpse of coming events. Our seminar at Quail Roost Conference Center last fall was filled to capacity. Our sessions with the Rev. Fitzsimmons Allison turned out to be a mind-stretching experience! We are eagerly looking forward to our fourth annual seminar scheduled at Quail Roost for September 26-28. It gives me great pleasure to announce that Bishop Fraser will lead it and we will examine issues and concerns confronting women in these troublesome and pressure-packed times in the context that "it's not like it used to be, but the answers are the same." In the narthex of St. Timothy's there is a box in which you may deposit questions you would like to have answered or concerns you have that you would like discussed and the Bishop has promised to build them into his planning. This conference should be a valuable and meaningful time for those who come. (Mrs. Long will give you the details tomorrow)

Attendance at our January worship retreat was down from last year due to the bitter cold and the flu season. Proof that when God closes one door, He opens another was evident when the daughters of the King of Emmanuel Church in Southern Pines decided to join us this year for their quiet time. We look forward to having them with us next year.

Tomorrow you will hear a report on the camp and conference center study which resulted from action on a resolution by this body at last year's annual meeting. If this is to become a reality for the Diocese, it is necessary for you to let the council members know that you are in favor of it and will support it. I hope you will be prepared to take whatever action is necessary as evidence of your support. Keep your ears attuned during the coming months to whatever action the council takes.

It has been heartwarming to hear your comments following spring planning days. We were delighted to learn that you felt, as did the board, that our new format successfully told the story of the interacting program of the churchwomen. These workshops provide us with the opportunity to meet in small groups and share our successes and failures with one another. The sessions were well-attended and are a testimony of your commitment to your office in your branch. The Ways and Means Workshop added this year was well received and will be included in the future as a regular feature. The Executive Board joins me in thanking you for your input which contributed so much to their success.

In spite of the run-away inflation which grips the country, your giving to the world wide mission of the church continues to be inspiring. Over $104,000 was handled by the treasurer or appropriate board member during 1976. Giving is up in almost every area. Your pledges of $20,642 showed a slight increase over last year; we sent $1,637 to the Church Periodical Club, and our United Thank Offering of $35,586.87 is the largest ingathering we have ever had in the Diocese. However, the Missionary Christmas Fund has been declining for the past several years. If you could but read the warm letters of appreciation we receive from these special people, you would understand how much these gifts at Christmas mean to them. I hope you will think about this next fall when you make up your budgets. This year the nine missionaries affiliated with our Diocese received checks of $216.00. Through "Specials" you gave $41,819.00 which is much less than reported last year. However indications are that all of the money you gave to Specials was not sent through the Diocesan treasurer.

What makes the heart sing is the Church women's understanding that stewardship is more than gifts of money. It also means living out our Lord's second great commission to clothe the naked, feed the hungry, shelter the homeless and care for the sick, the elderly and the handicapped. Branch activities affirm this understanding of stewardship. Women have established in their churches clothes closets, emergency food pantries, soup groups, sewing guilds for making layettes for infants of indigent mothers of lap robes for the old and the ill; they have set up visiting programs which work; they furnish intercity transportation for medical appointments. Wherever they go, wherever they serve, they are witnessing to God's love for all of his children and thus become "His witnessing community."

Approximately twenty-five years ago, this was the theme for the triennium. In spite of the admonition that you "can't go back", I resurrected this theme because the church today is moving in new and creative ways which I felt needed to be shared by all of us. As we spend the next few hours discovering the many ways in which we are a witnessing community, do not overlook the basic fact that prayer and study precede any programs of action.

While we are cognizant of the issues and changes facing the church, we are equally aware that there will always be issues and changes facing her. Our challenge is not in our solutions to these problems, but in the depth of our commitment to Jesus Christ! Continuing study of God's word and an ever-deepening prayer life are the keys to Christian Growth; and then by witnessing to Christ in our daily activities and telling others about him, we may live out the Christian Life.

How great is your commitment?

Miss Rose Lynch of the Thompson Children's Home—Episcopal Child Care Services gave a report on the increasing mental health role of that institution.

Dr. Prezell Robinson, President of St. Augustine's College, presented a student from Liberia, Augustus Toomey, who spoke about the ever-widening Samaritan-like witness of the Episcopal Church here and abroad as it relates to St. Augustine's.

Mrs. Helen Parker, a resident at the Edwin A. Penick Memorial Home, was presented by Mrs. Mary Street, assistant to the Director. She gave a resumé of the various activities of the home which involve it in the community as it simultaneously serves the needs of its residents.

Mrs. Evans made several final announcements. She also recognized Mrs. Margaret Lockwood, a delegate from the Church of the Holy Family in Chapel Hill, who has been secretary to three Presiding Bishops—Lichtenberger, Hines, Allen.

The session was recessed until 6:00 p.m.

At six o'clock dinner was served at Wilson Country Club. This was followed by a service of evening worship at St. Timothy's Church at 8:30 p.m. Rite I of the Proposed Prayer Book was used for the celebration of Holy Eucharist. Bishop C. Charles Vaché, Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia, was the celebrant and preacher. He was assisted by the Rev. John A. Gray and the Rev. Uly Gooch. This service was planned by the Diocesan Liturgical Commission. The United Thank Offering was presented and the anthem was sung by St. Timothy's choir.

Session II

Mrs. Evans convened the second session at 9:30 A.M. on Wednesday, April 20. Following the singing of Hymn 347, "Alleluia, Sing to Jesus," She opened the meeting with prayers.

Mrs. W. G. Long described the 1977 Quail Roost Seminar, on the theme: "It is not like it use to be—but that doesn't change things." Bishop Fraser will be the leader and the Rev. G. Kenneth G. Henry will be chaplain. Questions were invited so that Bishop Fraser can weave the urgent concerns of women in this Diocese into his theme.

Mrs. E. G. Flannagan, Jr. reported for the Camp and Conference Committee and outlined its sketch of what kind of conference center could feasibly be constructed and operated for all activities of the Diocese. Mrs. Flannagan urged support of the Branches in terms of money, as well as by letters to Council members.

The following resolutions were presented for the Resolutions Committee by Mrs. Tyndall Harris, chairman:

RESOLUTION ON TELEVISION VIOLENCE

Whereas the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina have an abiding concern for the health and welfare of all of God's creatures, and

Whereas the medium of television has assumed a powerful role in shaping the attitudes and values of individuals in our society, and

Whereas repeated exposure to violent acts as a way of life creates an unacceptable tolerance of violent behavior in oneself and others, and

Whereas we realize the detrimental effects on the stability and sensitivity of the viewing public such violence can have, therefore be it resolved that the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina deplore the continued showing of television programs depicting violence, in that the same is offensive and constitutes a harmful influence by giving notoriety to unlawful behavior and can, in many cases, lead to aggressive behavior;

Be it further resolved that individual Episcopal Churchwomen write letters of opposition to sponsors of these same programs;

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the three major networks in the United States, the United States Congressional sub-committee on Child & Human Development and Communications, Common Cause, the Congressional delegation from North Carolina, and the major advertisers of violent television programs.

Mrs. Harris moved its adoption and it was passed.

RESOLUTION ON WORLD HUNGER AND DOMESTIC HUNGER

Whereas the problem of World and Domestic Hunger is one which continues to involve all peoples, and

Whereas the people of the United States who comprise 5.6% of the world's population consume 52% of the world's disposable resources, and

Whereas each of us as a Christian is committed to walk in the way of our Lord and to follow His admonitions, now therefore be it

Resolved that each person in attendance at the 1977 Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina urge her Branch to study World and Domestic Hunger, inform others of the problem and make some sacrificial offering of time, talent and money to the alleviation of this problem, and be it further

Resolved that each person in attendance at the 1977 Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina attempt to simplify her lifestyle as a part of this sacrificial offering.

Mrs. Harris moved its adoption and it was passed.

RESOLUTION ON CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER

Whereas at the Ninety-fourth Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, a resolution was adopted which requested the Bishop and Diocesan Council to appoint a broad-based committee to make an in-depth study of the feasibility of establishing a Camp and Conference Center for the Diocese of North Carolina along with a recommended plan for action, and

Whereas, pursuant to action on that resolution by the Diocesan Council, the Bishop appointed a committee to study the feasibility of establishing such a center, and

Whereas that Committee reported to the 161st Annual Convention of the Diocese of North Carolina, meeting in Roanoke Rapids, that such a Camp and Conference Center was needed in this Diocese, and presented a resolution adopted by that Convention which endorsed the concept of a Camp and Conference Center and directed the Diocesan Council to explore methods of raising capital funds with which to construct a Camp and Conference Center, therefore, be it

Resolved that the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina reaffirm their interest in and support of the establishment of a Camp and Conference Center and assure the Bishop and Diocesan Council of their readiness to assist by whatever means the Diocesan Council determines to be necessary to finance such a Camp and Conference Center for the Diocese of North Carolina.

Mrs. Harris moved its adoption and it was passed.

Mrs. E. G. Flannagan, Jr. then moved that a copy of this resolution be sent to all Branches not present at the 95th Annual Meeting and to the Diocesan Council. This motion was seconded and approved.

RESOLUTION ON CHILD ABUSE

Whereas all people are children of God, who have dignity and deserve to be so treated, and Whereas Jesus Christ showed anger and disapproval when the weak were oppressed or mistreated, and

Whereas Jesus Christ singled out children when he said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God," and

Whereas child abuse, physically, spiritually and emotionally, is becoming more widespread daily, as reported by the news and the media, therefore be it

Resolved that the Ninety-Fifth Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, meeting in Wilson, N.C., go on record opposing child abuse and encouraging all people to urge their legislators to make laws protecting children from abuse and help enforce those already in existence. Further, be it Resolved, that we work towards those conditions which will lessen the chances of child abuse. Mrs. Harris moved its adoption and it was passed.

RESOLUTION ON ORDINATION OF HOMOSEXUALS

Whereas God created all persons in his image and blessed them, and

Whereas God felt the need for man to have a helpmate in the form of a woman rather another man to share his life, and

Whereas God ordained that a man leave his father and mother and cleave unto his wife that they be one flesh, and

Whereas God opposed sexual perversions of his people throughout the Old and New Testaments, and

Whereas we believe the Bible to be most explicit in both the Old and New Testaments as to the use of our sexual desires, and

Whereas by not publicly acknowledging or taking a stand on the issue of homosexuality, we are condoning this practice, now therefore be it

Resolved that the Ninety-Fifth Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, meeting in Wilson, North Carolina, go on record as opposing the ordination of practicing homosexuals. Be it further

Resolved that the Secretary is instructed to send copies of this Memorial to the Presiding Bishop, the Diocesan Bishop and the Diocesan Committee on Ministry.

Mrs. Harris moved its adoption and it was passed.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE 1928 BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

Whereas we, the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, express a deep and abiding love for the Holy Catholic Church, and

Whereas we are desirous for continued peace and unity within the Church, and

Whereas many communicants are disturbed over the changes in wording, order of services, and theology in the Proposed Book of Prayer, and

Whereas the Presiding Bishop, the Right Reverend John N. Allin, has stated that "If loyal, devout people want to worship with the old Prayer Book, they should not be denied it," therefore, be it

Resolved that the Episcopal Churchwomen, out of love for the Holy Catholic Church and our desire for peace and unity within it, request the Deputies to the General Convention from the Diocese of North Carolina to respect the wish of the Presiding Bishop to keep the 1928 Book of Common Prayer as an alternative to the Proposed Book of Prayer.

This resolution was reported out of committee without prejudice. On motion duly made and seconded, action on this Resolution was postponed until the 96th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen in order that sufficient time be given for study and use.

RESOLUTION—BY-LAW #3 CHANGE

Whereas By-Law #3 as passed at the 1976 Annual Meeting, establishing the number of delegates from each Branch to the President and two other delegates does not democratically represent the voice of the Branches, and

Whereas the delegates play a large role in responsibility for the dissemination of the purposes of that organization to individual members or chapters; therefore it is necessary that the larger Branches have sufficient delegates to carry on this important work, and

Whereas a smaller convention makes less communication between Parishes and diminishes enthusiasm at the Annual Meeting, now therefore be it

Resolved that By-Law #3 of the Episcopal Churchwomen be changed to read: "3. Each Branch having fifty members or less shall be represented by the President and one other delegate (appointed by the President or elected by the Branch). The President, or her representative, and the delegate each has a vote. Each additional fifty members enrolled in the Episcopal Churchwomen shall entitle the Branch to an additional delegate with power to vote; however, in order to have voting privileges, a Branch must have paid a pledge to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Budget for the preceding year and must have reported to the Treasurer the number of active members in the Branch."

This resolution was reported from committee without prejudice. On motion duly made and seconded, the resolution was tabled and the President was requested to appoint an ad hoc committee to study the problem of delegate representation to Annual Meeting.

Mrs. Gerald Barrett, Treasurer, presented the budget as proposed by the Finance Committee. The 1976 financial report was accepted as presented upon motion by Mrs. Barrett. Her motion for the disbursement of the surplus from the 1976 budget was approved and was allocated as follows: $300 to Dr. John Harding, III in Nepal, and $200 for the New Treasurer's Account. The current grants of $6,800.00 for the 1977 budget for Inside and Outside the Diocese were adopted on motion of the Treasurer. (See detail on page 24) The proposed 1978 budget was presented in the amount of $21,000.00 and was accepted upon motion of the Treasurer. Mrs. Barrett's motion that the Epiphany Offering go to Everall and Stuart Peele, missionaries in Haiti, was approved.

Mrs. Evans introduced the third facet of the program on "His Witnessing Community"—"Witnessing to the Least of These." Outreach programs were described and explicated by the following: The Hungry: The Rev. Terry L. Bonnette, N.C.-S.C. Regional Director, CROP; The Sick: Mrs. James Craven, Durham, "Hospice"; Mrs. J. P. Gorell, Greensboro, "Holy Trinity's Sewing Program"; The Aged: Mr. James Barber, Greensboro, "Share a Home", Mrs. Oscar Cranz, Charlotte, "Christ Church's Shut-in Visiting Program"; The Handicapped: Mr. Anthony Dingman, "Job Placement for the Handicapped".

Mr. Frank Ballard made a presentation about Kanuga Camps and Conferences summer program.

Mrs. T. A. Fulton reported the Courtesy Committee's resolutions of thanks.

Mrs. Evans announced that the Executive Board had accepted the invitation from the Chapel of the Cross in Chapel Hill to host the 96th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen, April 25-26, 1978.

Closing prayers and benediction were preceded by the installation of officers by the Rev. John A. Gray, Dean of the Northeast Convocation. The noonday service was taken from the proposed Prayer Book and included the installation service for new officers.

After the singing of Hymn 261, "O, Zion Haste," the Annual Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1976 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1976 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements as a whole.

Stuart and Everall Peele (Haiti)

"Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry."

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

Executive Council: The Executive body of the Protestant Episcopal Church which carries out the Program of the Church between General Conventions.

Province: A number of Dioceses and Missionary Districts, adjacently located. There are nine provinces in the United States. The Diocese of North Carolina belongs to the Fourth Province, known as the Sewanee Province. The work of the province is educational and promotional.

Diocese: A group of parishes and missions under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. The Diocese of North Carolina has 63 parishes and 48 missions. See the Constitution and By-Laws in this Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in this Diocese.

Convocation: A number of parishes and missions within a given area in a diocese. There are five convocations in the Diocese of North Carolina. See the Constitution, Article X, in the Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Convocations in the Diocese.

Parish and Mission: A fellowship of redeemed people doing God's work under the leadership and direction of a priest. A parish is self-supporting, whereas a mission receives support from the diocese.

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. JOHN W. S. DAVIS, SECRETARY
384 Bellwood Drive, Henderson, N.C. 27536

RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN INDIVIDUAL

1. You will be strengthened in offering help to others by participating fully in the devotional life of your parish.

2. Seek to enrich your own spiritual depth by following a Rule of Life, such as daily prayer and devotional reading, meditation and Bible study, daily surrender of self to God to be used as a channel for His service, and regular rededication to Christ through the Holy Communion.

3. Build up your own personal devotional library of prayers, books, pamphlets, poems, hymns and tapes.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS BRANCH SECRETARY

You have been assigned a particular sphere of work. You should not let it become separated from the work of the others on the Board. All work of the women should be at the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Keep your Board ever mindful of its reason for being, by seeing that worship is an integral part of all planning and work. It would be well to allow for a moment of prayer, either silent or oral, before taking final action on any matter, in order that each member may seek our Lord's will. The few minutes required for this practice could transform a group to being "the body of Christ" in a very real sense.

1. Lead the devotions at the Board meetings or arrange for someone else to do so.

2. Plan, with the Devotional Life Chairman in each chapter, a devotion related to the study program.

3. Plan Quiet Days, Retreats, Schools of Prayer, Corporate Communion, World Day of Prayer observance, the formation of Bible study-prayer groups.

4. Worship and prayer should be the subject of at least one program during the year. Plan this in advance with the program committee.

5. Attend the Convocational Workshop on Devotional Life.

6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life for any assistance.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

3. Be prepared to assist Branch CSR Secretaries upon request.

4. Conduct a workshop at each Convocational Spring Planning Day.

5. Assist chairman of Diocesan Christian Social Ministries when needed.

6. Serve on Board of Church Women United in N. C.

7. Attend all ECW Diocesan Board meetings, Seminars and Annual Meetings.

8. Send copies of annual report to chairman of the Annual Meeting in time for the report to go into delegates' packets.

Responsibilities—Branch

1. Consult with Rector of the Parish about the needs within the Parish and with the County Social Services Department about needs in the community.
2. Give serious consideration to suggestions from Diocesan CSR Secretary about Diocesan and World Service.
3. Plan a comprehensive program to include service in the Parish, the Community, the Diocese, and the World.
4. Involve as many ECW members as possible, in order that each may use her special talents.
5. Attend Parish ECW Board meetings and keep them informed of the work of the CSR Committee.
6. Use Bulletin Boards, Newsletters, Sunday Bulletins or any other available means to keep all the church members aware of the opportunities of service.
7. Serve on the Christian Social Ministries Committee if your Parish has one.
8. Plan ahead. Don't wait until the year's activities are started before having definite projects to suggest. It is important to start early in the fall.
9. Have information available concerning worthy causes on which to spend the money raised by the Ways and Means Committee.
10. Attend Convocation meetings, Spring Planning Day, Annual Meeting, Church Women United meetings (if your community has this organization) and any local meetings of other groups that are concerned with Social problems.
11. Inform your Branch of the needs at Penick Home and Thompson Child Care Services.
12. Cooperate with other Episcopal Churches and churches of other denominations for projects too big for one Parish.

MISSIONS

MRS. RALSTON F. WELCH, SECRETARY
321 Ardmore Drive, High Point 27262

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church.
2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through your Diocesan pledge. This will enable the churchwomen on the Diocesan level to accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggested projects will be sent upon request.
3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this Diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. Ralston F. Welch, Secretary (see above address) and mailed to her by NOVEMBER 15.
4. By action of the 1977 Annual Meeting, the 1978 Epiphany offering will go to Stuart and Everall Peele. Please encourage your branch to seriously consider participating in this offering. Send it to the Diocesan Treasurer.
5. Many branches have expressed interest in assigning a specific missionary to each convocation. The purpose is to concentrate their monies, prayers etc. on one or two people and become more closely involved with them.

Below are the 1977-1978 assignments.

NORTHEAST—Jocelyn Gordon, Sister Adelaide

SANDHILLS—The Rev. Marvin C. Perry

6. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate. Please do your part to make this a successful year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. THOMAS J. RANDALL
923 W. Horah Street, Salisbury 28144

"And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and the fear of the Lord." This moving passage from Isaiah II:2 applies not only at Confirmation, but to us as concerned leaders in Christian Education as we venture into the basic interests and needs of our lives as well as of others in the world today. There are many sources for what wisdom we need and we should explore them in many ways. Attendance at the Spring Workshops will have provided many of us with ideas for study, books to order and to consider, and suggestions from other branches for successful programs. Just the idea of congenial fellowship among

Episcopal women at this time of meditation and communion can be inspiring for our future experience. If I or any of the Diocesan officers can provide you with any help with themes on Missions, Christian Social Relations, etc., please don't hesitate to call on us. Participation in the Annual Conference whether at Kanuga or the Seminar at Quail Roost in Durham, N. C. is also recommended because new ideas and formats are often generated here. This opportunity for learning and relaxing in a beautiful setting can be invaluable.

A theme for your new year may be developed in many ways and we should remember that books are not our sole resource—people, communities, multi-media, church and learning institutions are also at our fingertips when we look for ways to present some facet of Christian Education. It is also important to remember that programs need not be a static experience each year—they can be varied as women are varied and presented in different ways by the individual speaker or by panel discussion, by them teaching (perhaps by one Branch member and one outsider from the community) or by round robin contributions. Once you have selected your program topic, spend some time planning an unusual form of presentation.

Keep in touch with new books and new ideas by reading faithfully your copies of The Episcopalian, The Living Church, and The Churchman. When you go to Kanuga, Quail Roost, Richmond or Atlanta remember to browse in the appropriate bookstores for new publications. Just don't neglect taking a reading of what your women really need and want—some may want to make in-depth studies of certain books of the Bible once again or an understanding of charismatic movements; some may want Episcopal Church history and the current trends of today. Circulate not only in bookstores and libraries but among your women, to know them and find direction for what we all need in furthering our concern for others—hopefully in renewing our commitment together in faith and love of God and his son Jesus Christ!

I would like to alert you to certain authors of religious prose and poetry; some contemporary, others familiar and classic for your inspiration and enjoyment!

Country Club Circle, Lexington, N.C. 27292

The purpose of this office is to give direction in two areas important to Episcopal Churchwomen. This past year has been spent listening and redefining the task of this office. During the next year, it is hoped that many new ideas will come to this section of the Episcopal Churchwomen. Please feel free to call Diocesan Secretary of Christian Ministries and College Work with your suggestions.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

1. Investigate vocations within the church with emphasis on opportunities for women. There are many careers available—Ministries to minority groups, Higher Education, Hospital, Recreation, Orders, Chaplaincy, Nurses, Christian Education, Blind, Deaf, Retarded, National Institution for Lay Ministry (Church Army). This information on careers is found in Episcopal Church Annual.

2. Encourage Churchwomen to participate in the Ministry of the Laity. The opportunities are different in every church and this office hopes to encourage women to serve in various areas such as Vestry persons, Lay Readers, Acolytes, teachers, Visiting Committee Members, and Members of Altar Guild.

3. Express a special interest in Seminary students that go to Seminary from local church.

COLLEGE WORK

The college work section of this office seeks to maintain a relationship with Episcopal students.

1. Students who are away at college—
 - a. Keep in touch with students. Make a file on each student and send birthday, Christmas, and Easter cards, newsletters, etc.
 - b. Arrange get-together or honor the students at a regular church occasion such as a coffee hour after church service.
 - c. Plan a Sunday for college students and use them as acolytes, lay readers and ushers.
2. Students who come to local colleges—
 - a. Check with local colleges and determine what the relationship can be between Churchwomen and Episcopal students.
 - b. Encourage students to be a part of church program.
3. College chaplain will visit and explain their role on college campus. Invite a chaplain to speak at Churchwomen's meeting or plan a special church service for the presentation.

PROMOTION

MRS. JOHN M. CANNON
Rt. 7, Box 243, Raleigh 27609

The essential duty of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary is to promote the ideas and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is her duty to keep all churchwomen informed of things to come and to report on noteworthy activities which have taken place. She is available to assist branch officers in promoting individual programs as well as diocesan sponsored ones. The effectiveness of this job depends somewhat on her being informed by local churchwomen about their endeavors.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that someone is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the Diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. CHARLES SHAFFER
716 Gimghoul Drive, Chapel Hill 27514

Altar Work is rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.
6. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need.
7. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. WALLY AUSLEY
215 Reynolds Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27609

The Church Periodical Club, serving the ministry of the printed word since 1888, is the only organization in the Episcopal Church devoted solely to supplying free printed material to those who cannot otherwise obtain it. Its steadily expanding, adaptable program is unique among the churches in giving free materials to responsible recipients they themselves specify. It is supported by contributions and most of its work is done by volunteers.

CPC functions on all levels, nationally, world-wide, locally—in parishes, communities, dioceses. Religious, educational, technical, recreational books, magazines, leaflets are provided for the most remote places and for nearest neighbors. Needs that exceed local resources are referred to National Books Fund.

This fund is directed by a committee of experienced volunteers, meeting to evaluate each request. Most are granted as far as funds permit. National Books Fund projects have financed a translation of the Prayer Book in Malay to giving medical journals to the stations served by the S. S. Hope.

How can CPC become alive in your Parish?

1. Pray for the work of CPC for guidance asking God to direct you in spreading the Good News with the printed word.

2. Plan to publicize the work of CPC to all men, women and children in your parish by observing the first Sunday in October. (CPC Sunday)

3. Plan to educate your parish on CPC Sunday in the importance of continuing to supply printed materials to people around the world.

4. Use your parish bulletin and meetings in your parish to remind them of CPC Sunday in October. Use the CPC prayers at all services and meetings that week in your parish.

In our Diocese, the CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a Diocesan Director of CPC and carried out by CPC secretaries in the branches. The Secretary of Missions could also serve as CPC Secretary in those churches of small membership.

NOTES:

All contributions should be sent to the Diocesan Director of CPC. All contributions should be made by check payable to Church Periodical Club. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. Enclose a memo showing the source so proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the CPC secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

PRESIDENT'S CROSS

The engraved silver Celtic cross worn by the Diocesan President during her term of office was a gift of Mrs. Leslie Evans in 1956. She wore the cross during her administration as President of the Woman's Auxiliary and presented it to Mrs. T. P. Thomas at her installation at Annual Meeting, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh, in 1958. The back of the cross bears the inscription: "President, Woman's Auxiliary, Diocese of North Carolina."

PENDULA

The pendula is worn by all Diocesan Past-Presidents in the IV Province. It is an oval of gold or silver, with a Chi-Rho symbol bearing seventeen stars on the crossbars. The stars represent the number of Dioceses in the Province. The pendula is a gift to our Retiring Diocesan President by Dr. Philip DeWolfe, now of Florida, in memory of his mother, Elizabeth Owens DeWolfe. Dr. DeWolfe's wife, Anne, was a member of our Diocesan Executive Board in 1963 when the decision was made to give the pendula to retiring Diocesan Presidents. At that time North Carolina was the only Diocese in the Province which did not present one to its President. Through Dr. DeWolfe's generosity, all living Past-Presidents were presented with a pendula at Annual Meeting at St. Michael's Church, Raleigh, in 1963. Mrs. James L. Godfrey of Chapel Hill was the Diocesan President when this tradition was begun in our Diocese.

ALMS BASIN

The U.T.O. Alms Basin is made of silver and gold collected from all parishes in the Diocese of North Carolina; an idea conceived by Mrs. B. W. Roberts. Mrs. Brown Patterson designed the center seal made up of gold wedding rings, pins and crosses donated. Mr. Louis Glasier was the Ecclesiastical craftsman. It was dedicated by Bishop Penick at Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955 in Chapel Hill. It is available for Spring and Fall Ingathering, upon request to the U.T.O. Secretary.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook—1978-79
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina have slowly rediscovered themselves and the fruition of this rediscovery comes through to me as a strong determination and commitment to the Episcopal Churchwomen and to their work in and through the Church.

It is a joy to see this growth and development which is the result of the leadership of the women at all levels, the parish president and her officers, and the diocesan president and her officers. I rejoice over this development and the diocese is stronger for their presence.

This does not infer that the Episcopal Churchwomen have gone back to any of the old concepts of the ECW. What it does mean is that they have moved forward into a contemporary world with a contemporary program and are assuming their position not only among the Women of the Church but in the decision-making processes of their parishes and vestries.

Carry on! My best wishes to you. The whole Church and the Diocese are benefiting from your renewed strength and vigor.

Faithfully, Your Bishop

PRAYERS

RENEWAL

Almighty God, by whose Holy Spirit your children are led to acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; grant that this same Spirit may so dwell in us that we may be daily renewed, and manifest in our lives the Love that reaches out in blessing to all people. Empower us to help build up your Kingdom on earth to your honor and glory. We ask this, gracious Father, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we work to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant) Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be directed to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray.

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee,
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.
Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

96th Annual Meeting
Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina
Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill, N.C.

Bishop Fraser, Delegates, Visitors, Guests:

Never have I been more sure of anything than I am of the fact that when God closes one door, He opens another. Its been that kind of year for me. For it has been a year of many frustrations, but they have taught me patience and brought me to a real awareness that God is working his purpose out, according to his timetable and in His way and not mine.

As I review the year just ended, I am deeply conscious of a changing society and a changing institutional church. I view the present unrest in the church not with alarm, but with great expectations of good things to come. We need time to work through all of our current problems, but I do believe that in their resolution we will emerge a stronger body of committed christian people.

That the church is indeed influenced by changes in the secular world is nowhere more apparent than in the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen who are noting a decline in membership and, in some places, a lack of interest on the part of women and little or no support from the clergy. This is not a reflection on our programs nor any reason for us to have guilt feelings that perhaps we somehow have failed in our mission. Instead, let us acknowledge that competition from outside forces is greater than ever before. More women are accepting employment outside of the home and many others are returning to school and surely the demand for volunteers for all kinds of good and worthwhile activities is tremendous. But the purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen to provide additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service within the church is still viable. Even as the church accepts a broader ministry of women, the fact remains, as Dr. Anne Harrison of the Episcopal Church Center has said, that "the Episcopal Churchwomen continues to be the most visible way for women to claim, affirm, and support their ministries as lay women in the church." A look at the women today who are in positions of leadership on the national and the diocesan levels in our church attests to the validity of her statement. The Episcopal Churchwomen provided their training ground.

It is important for us to stay abreast or even ahead of what is happening in the church—to look to the future with the vision that has characterized the 96 years of joyful, faithful and productive service of the churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina in furthering the mission of the church. We can be thankful for the strong leadership of the able and courageous women who have preceded us.

I accept the fact of changing times and I accept the challenge to keep our churchwomen a viable organization. It seems to me we are at a cross road; therefore, it is a good and pragmatic time for us to do an evaluation of our organization on the diocesan level and for you to do likewise and make a study of your Parish Episcopal Churchwomen. Following annual meeting, I will appoint a committee whose charge will be to study our structure and tenure, as well as our programs and outreach in an effort to determine how we may continue to be the strong institution we have always been in serving our Lord. I will request a progress report by next annual meeting. In response to a concern in this same area, I appointed an ad-hoc committee last year to study the relationship of working women to the Episcopal Churchwomen. Correspondence with organizations within the church on the national level quickly revealed that no information or help was available to us from them as we addressed this question, but they did express an interest in our findings. Mrs. Norwood Starling, chairman of the committee, advised me that the committee was not yet ready to give a final report on their findings. However, I feel it is safe to announce one trend that is conclusive from the returned survey: There are many working women who do want some kind of relationship with the churchwomen for education and for fellowship. But they desire this on a parochial level. This I feel provides a challenge to all branches to provide some type of activity for those who have difficulty in participating in the branches as they are presently structured. I would include not only women who are working, but students the single parent and mothers of small children as well. I have asked this committee to keep the structure and tenure committee informed of their findings and their conclusions.

A look at the activities of the churchwomen for the past year reveals some exciting achievements. My visits with so many of you this year affirm my belief in the creativity of the ministry the Episcopal Churchwomen. We are the community gathered and the community sent. We indeed labor in the vineyard. The interest in continuing christian education is evidenced through your support of the fall seminar at Quail Roost Conference Center. It is hard to tell anyone what this kind of conference is really like. It is something one has to experience. The fact there are many who return year after year and the conference continues to be filled to capacity is proof that it is meeting a need for many churchwomen. Those who were fortunate enough to attend last year when Bishop Fraser led the seminar will long remember it. We are excited about plans for our 5th Annual Seminar this fall and we are delighted to announce that one of our church's most outstanding laymen, Mr. Dave Stoner of Jackson, Mississippi, will lead it for us as we explore "Christian Living—Abundant Living". The fact that our worship retreat had to be cancelled in January of this year for lack of response, opened the door for us to ask Mr. Stoner to come because it provided the additional funds necessary to have someone outside of the diocese as leader.

Our spring planning days for the convocations were well attended and it gladdened the hearts of the board members to hear your remarks indicating that the workshops were really pertinent and helpful to you in planning the work of your branches for the coming year. The extra time in the actual workshop this spring seemed to be adequate and part of that magic formula we have been searching for in the planning of these days.

Our financial condition continues to be sound. I am happy to note that the total amount of money handled by the treasurer or appropriate board member during 1977 was over $121,000. Branch pledges totaled $20,926 and is an area that does need additional funding by you. This fund makes possible the diocesan outreach of the churchwomen both overseas and at home. I urge you to consider an increase in your 1979 pledge to help support our scholarships, overseas projects, work with migrants, and christian education. The cost of the yearbooks is rising faster than the galloping inflation that envelops the country and this, too, is underwritten by the pledge fund. In other areas your giving has been beautiful. We had the largest United Thank Offering we have ever had—$38,191.07—an increase of $2,600 over last year. Our Church Periodical Club offering of $2,104.53 is our largest in recent years. Your increased giving to the Missionary Christmas Gift Fund made it possible to send these dedicated people checks in the amount of $222.57. I congratulate your treasurers in sending more of your "Specials" monies through our diocesan treasurer and I look for even greater cooperation in that area in the coming year.

In light of the action taken by the diocesan convention in January, we will have no problem locating projects to fund over the next few years. Their approval of a $2,000,000 capital fund drive for a diocesan camp and conference center and for venture in mission places responsibility on us, not only as individuals, but also as organizations, to support this campaign in a positive and meaningful way. In formulating your budgets and allocating your bazaar monies, I urge your continuing support for this fund drive. I am serving on the Diocesan Education Committee for venture in mission and when plans for participation in venture are completed, I will advise you of the projects and how to channel your monies for this program. Funds may now be sent for the camp and conference center through our ECW Diocesan Treasurer for forwarding to Mr. Michael Schenck. A memorial fund for the camp and conference center has been established. Anyone desiring to send a memorial or to honor someone, may send this to Mr. Schenck, Diocesan House, and he will acknowledge with a letter or card to the family.

There have been many rewarding experiences for me this year as your president. I represented you at the ordination service for a new priest and a new deacon last June at Calvary Church, Tarboro and this was an historic occasion: it was the first time the president of the churchwomen had been invited to read a lesson in the service. I attended an evangelism and church growth conference at Kanuga as part of the diocesan team and I have been your representative at the venture in mission meetings held during the past year. When the Rev. Pauli Murray celebrated her first eucharist I was privileged to be in the congregation in the Old Chapel here at the Chapel of the Cross—the place where her grandmother was baptized as a slave. One of the great joys has been visiting so many branches and getting to know so many Episcopal churchwomen. Since becoming president, I have spoken once or twice nearly every month to one of the branches and in addition have consulted with several branch executive boards who are in the process of reorganizing, reactivating or revitalizing their local branches.

The theme for our 96th meeting, "Go and join the laborers in the vineyard", is a charge we as churchwomen accept. Our understanding of mission and ministry through the years has been responsible for much of the outreach of the church. In some parishes, we have been the only ones reaching out to others. It seems appropriate to gather together all of our resources and have a diocesan-wide "show and tell and share" day. That is what the resource fair proposes to do. It is a way to show the creative and exciting ways women use their talents in serving our Lord. I hope you will be delighted with this feature of annual meeting. The total program has been designed in an effort to give you new directions for your labor in our Lord's vineyard.

Thank you for the privilege of serving as your president. With your continuing interest, love and support, I look with great anticipation to next year, secure in the knowledge that we are about our Father's business.

Mrs. Evans introduced speakers who delineated programs extant in the Diocese which provide opportunities for that special ministry in the Vineyard with which the Churchwomen are concerned.

The Rev. Barry Kramer, new Diocesan Missioner to the Deaf outlined ways his ministry could help integrate deaf persons into full parish life. He noted that for the first time members from deaf congregations were attending an ECW Annual Meeting as special guests and that the meeting was being interpreted for them.

Mr. James Austin, Director of Hospital Hospitality House, a project of St. Timothy's, Winston-Salem, reported on this guest-house accommodation for persons who are staying in the city for hospital treatment or to be near family members receiving treatment. He called upon Episcopalians to "get out of the stained glass bubble" and answer this special need in many communities.

Mrs. Evans introduced the next facet of the program on the theme of Opportunities for Continuing Education in our own Diocese. Mrs. W. G. Long announced the Fall Seminar at Quail Roost Conference Center, on the topic "Christian Living—Abundant Living," September 25-27th. The leader will be Dave Stoner of Jackson, Miss., and the Rev. An enthusiastic introduction to a report on the new Camp and Conference Center plans was given by Mrs. Evans. The Rev. Jim Abbott, chairman of the Committee, and the Rev. Wilson Carter, one of its able members, then told the new Conference Center story by word and slide presentation and announced that its funding will be solicited in a capital funds drive which will bring it to reality.

Announcements were made of the Episcopal Book Store presence in the parish house as well as the Educational Committee display. The Resource Fair, highlighting the work of the Branches and giving evidence of their unique ideas, talents, and labor in the vineyard was opened in the Parish Hall following the first session.

The session was recessed at 4:30 p.m., after the singing of Hymn 261, "O Sion Haste."

At six thirty p.m. dinner was served at the Carolina Inn. This was followed by a service of evening worship at the Chapel of the Cross. The service was planned by the Diocesan Liturgical Commission, the Rev. Uly Gooch, Chairman. The Celebrant was Bishop Fraser and the sermon was delivered by the Rt. Rev. John Elbridge Hines, former Presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, USA. The United Thank Offering was presented by representatives from the Branches in the same way it is presented at the Triennial Meeting. Following Bishop Hines' moving words celebrating the importance of the work of women in the Church and in the vineyard, Bishop Fraser celebrated The Holy Eucharist.

Session II

Mrs. Evans convened the second session at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, April 26th. Following the singing of Hymn No. 301, "Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise," the Rev. Peter Lee gave the opening prayers.

Bishop Fraser brought a message of encouragement and praise for the work of the women, calling them to go forth in new ways to serve the Lord in the Ministry of the Laity.

Mrs. Evans called upon Mrs. Willie J. Long, chairman of the Committee to Study Delegate Representation for the following report which was requested by the 95th Annual Meeting:

The Committee to Study the Problem of Delegate Representation to Annual Meeting feels it must identify the membership of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina and reports its findings and conclusions as follows:

1. The purpose of the Episcopal Churchwomen as contained in Article II is: "The purpose of this organization shall be to enable Episcopal Churchwomen in the Diocese of North Carolina—through worship, study, fellowship, and service—to share more fully in the mission of the whole Church."
2. There are many large parishes in this Diocese with a small percentage of women members participating actively in the meetings of the parish Branch of the Episcopal Churchwomen, but often a much larger percentage active in the work of the Branch such as Christian Social Relations, Missions and the United Thank Offering.
3. There are many small parishes with a large percentage of women members participating fully in the meetings and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen's Branch.
4. Membership in the Branch Episcopal Churchwomen is not based on individual pledging.

We therefore feel that every woman member of the parish or mission is a member of her Episcopal Churchwomen's Branch.

The Committee made observations about the purpose of Annual Meeting and prepared a recommendation for delegate representation from the Branches to Annual Meeting.

1. The Committee feels the Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meets to conduct the business of the Churchwomen and to stimulate and encourage interest and participation of all women of the Diocese in the program of the Episcopal Churchwomen.
2. The Committee notes that the change in By-law #3 as adopted in 1976 which states in part that "each Branch may be represented by the President and two other delegates (appointed by the President or elected by the Branch), each having a vote. . ." had little effect on the number of women attending the 1977 Annual Meeting following its adoption.
3. It is desirable to encourage large numbers of Episcopal Churchwomen to attend Annual Meeting so that these women may more effectively carry the enthusiasm and spirit of Annual Meeting along with the business of the Meeting, back to the local Branch.
4. The Committee notes that the North Carolina Diocesan Convention has a set number of delegates from parishes and missions, no matter how large or small the parish or mission; the National Church's General Convention also has a set number of delegates from each Diocese, no matter how large or small the Diocese. We therefore feel it fair to use a similar system.

To encourage more participation in Annual Meeting the Committee recommends that By-law #3 read as follows:

"Each Branch may be represented by the President and one to four other delegates (appointed by the President or elected by the Branch), each having a vote. Each Branch may also be represented by one to four alternates with voice and no vote. A Branch to have voting privileges must have paid a pledge to the Diocesan Churchwomen's Budget for the preceding year."

Mrs. John P. McManus, Treasurer, presented the budget as proposed by the Finance Committee. The 1977 financial report was accepted as presented upon motion by Mrs. McManus. Her motion for the disbursement of the 1977 surplus was approved and was allocated as follows: $423.22 for the ECW Yearbook; $250.00 for the Discretionary Fund of the incoming Bishop Co-adjutor; and $250.00 to the ECW Contingency Fund (increasing cost of postage and supplies). The unallocated funds of $7,500.00 for the 1978 budget, inside and outside the Diocese, were adopted on motion of the Treasurer. (See detail on page 24). The proposed 1979 budget for outside and inside the diocese and for administration, was presented in the amount of $21,000.00 and was accepted upon motion of the Treasurer (See detail on page 25). Mrs. McManus' motion that the Epiphany Offering for 1979 be sent to the Scholarship Fund, St. Mary's School for Indian Girls, Springfield, South Dakota, as recommended by the Finance Committee and approved by the Executive Board, was seconded and passed.

Mrs. John W. S. Davis, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolutions:

RESOLUTION ON FUNDING THE TRIENNIAL MEETING

Whereas, the delegates to the 1976 Triennial Meeting in Minneapolis voted overwhelmingly to continue these meetings, convinced that they broaden the vision of those in attendance by offering spiritual renewal, creative programming, outreach ideas, and an opportunity to see the whole church in action, thereby strengthening the church "back home" where these ideas are implemented, and

Whereas, the work of the women provides a valuable training ground for lay leadership as a resource to the whole church, and

Whereas, the Episcopal Churchwomen continues to be the most visible way for women to claim, affirm and support their ministries as lay women in the church, and

Whereas, prior to 1973 a significant portion of the expenses for the Triennial Meeting were met by the Executive Council because the planning body (the General Division of Women's Work or its successor, the Committee for Women) was funded by the Executive Council budget, and

Whereas, since 1973 the only funds currently available for planning and implementing the Triennial Meeting are a share of the income from the Wright Legacy, and the income from the Legacy Income Account, which have proved to be inadequate, now therefore, be it

RESOLVED THAT DELEGATES TO THE 96TH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA request the Executive Council to institute a policy whereby future Triennial expenses are included as a part of the General Convention budget by funding those expenses of the Triennial Meeting not covered by available income from other sources, the precise amount to be negotiated.

Mrs. Davis moved its adoption and it was passed.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE 1928 BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

Whereas, we, the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina, express a deep and abiding love for the Holy Catholic Church, and

Whereas, we are desirous for continued peace and unity within the Church, and

Whereas, many communicants are disturbed over the change in working order of services, and theology in the Proposed Book of Prayer, and

Whereas, the Presiding Bishop, the Right Reverend John N. Allin, has stated that "If loyal, devout people want to worship with the old Prayer Book, they should not be denied it," therefore, be it

Resolved that the Episcopal Churchwomen, out of love for the Holy Catholic Church and our desire for peace and unity within it, request the Deputies to the General Convention from the Diocese of North Carolina to respect the wish of the Presiding Bishop to keep the 1928 Book of Common Prayer as alternative to the Proposed Book of Prayer.

Mrs. Davis explained that this resolution was reported out of Committee without prejudice last year. It was consequently moved for adoption and seconded and discussed before being postponed for action by the 1978 Annual Meeting. Since there was no discussion from the floor at this time, the vote was called and the resolution was adopted.

Mrs. Evans noted a change in the presentations from Diocesan institutions. Starting with this 1978 meeting, and for the next four years, time will be allowed for an in-depth report from one of the institutions, and only brief reports will be given by the others. St. Mary's College was highlighted this year. Mr. John Rice, president of the college, spoke about the unique witness of St. Mary's in the educational community: it is the sole Junior Episcopal women's college in the nation. He predicted qualitative and quantitative growth in the future.

Mrs. Earl Eisenhart, Jr., At-large Representative to the United Thank Offering Committee, from Bethesda, Maryland, gave a stirring talk on the importance of UTO in the individual life. "Coins are the symbols," she said, "but they are manna too." She reported that grants disbursed totaled over 1½ millions in 1977.

The Rev. Nichols White, Associate Rector of Christ Church, Charlotte, recently appointed Diocesan Chairman of the Venture in Mission Education Committee, spoke on planning for the educational program and the capital funds drive to be undertaken. He sees the educational process as the main job. $600,000 is the target amount which has been set forth for Venture in Mission.

Mrs. Warwick Aiken reported for the Courtesy Committee and presented its resolution of thanks.

Mrs. Evans announced that the Executive Board had accepted the invitation from St. Luke's, Salisbury, to host the 97th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen, May 1 and 2, 1979. She also reported that the United Thank Offering rendered at the Evening Worship Service was $298.42.

Closing prayers and benediction were preceded by the installation of officers by the Venerable Robert M. Davis, Archdeacon and Canon to the Ordinary.

After the singing of Hymn 276, "Now Thank We All Our God," the Annual Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Marion C. Salinger

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Bishop Hines, Mrs. Evans, members of the clergy, delegates and visitors to the Ninety-Sixth Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meeting in Chapel Hill at the Chapel of the Cross:

Our coming together here in beautiful Chapel Hill amid the invigorating showers of spring has been an occasion of joy and blessing to us all. We have gained here, and will carry back to our parishes, a renewed sense of the urgency and rightness and necessity of our tasks as servants of our Lord Jesus Christ, even as the burgeoning flowers and trees we see about us push urgently toward fulfilling their appointed role in God's creation.

It is with warm gratitude that we acknowledge the faithful, gracious, and devoted leadership of Scott Evans, and look forward to another year of enjoying her tenure as our president.

We have been filled with inspiration by the many excellent speakers—and, thanks to Bishop Hines, will we ever hold an onion again without a thought of our responsibility to share our faith and our substance with a world in need all around us?

We have particularly enjoyed the display of creative ideas in the Resource Fair, and appreciate those who spent time and energy so freely to make it a reality.

Our heartfelt thanks go to the hospitable and tireless ladies of the Chapel of the Cross, especially to their president, Mrs. James D. Folds, and her chairman, Mrs. Tyndall Harris and Mrs. Gerald Barrett and also to the rectors, the Rev. Mr. Lee and the Rev. Mr. Cook, as well as the Rev. Robert Davis for his special part, and also those responsible for the glorious music; and finally to all those of both the Chapel of the Cross and the Church of the Holy Family who labored to feed us to make us feel so at home in every way.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Warwick Aiken, Jr.
Mrs. Henry H. Chambliss
Mrs. James P. Smith

Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1977 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1977 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements as a whole.

Executive Council: The Executive body of the Protestant Episcopal Church which carries out the Program of the Church between General Conventions.

Province: A number of Dioceses and Missionary Districts, adjacently located. There are nine provinces in the United States. The Diocese of North Carolina belongs to the Fourth Province, known as the Sewanee Province. The work of the province is educational and promotional.

Diocese: A group of parishes and missions under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. The Diocese of North Carolina has 63 parishes and 48 missions. See the Constitution and By-Laws in this Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in this Diocese.

Convocation: A number of parishes and missions within a given area in a diocese. There are five convocations in the Diocese of North Carolina. See the Constitution, Article X, in the Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Convocations in the Diocese.

Parish and Mission: A fellowship of redeemed people doing God's work under the leadership and direction of a priest. A parish is self-supporting, whereas a mission receives support from the diocese.

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. JOHN W. S. DAVIS, SECRETARY
384 Bellwood Drive, Henderson, N.C. 27536

RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN INDIVIDUAL

1. You will be strengthened in offering help to others by participating fully in the devotional life of your parish.

2. Seek to enrich your own spiritual depth by following a Rule of Life, such as daily prayer and devotional reading, meditation and Bible study, daily surrender of self to God to be used as a channel for His service, and regular rededication to Christ through the Holy Communion.

3. Build up your own personal devotional library of prayers, books, pamphlets, poems, hymns and tapes.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS BRANCH SECRETARY

You have been assigned a particular sphere of work. You should not let it become separated from the work of the others on the Board. All work of the women should be at the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Keep your Board ever mindful of its reason for being, by seeing that worship is an integral part of all planning and work. It would be well to allow for a moment of prayer, either silent or oral, before taking final action on any matter, in order that each member may seek our Lord's will. The few minutes required for this practice could transform a group to being "the body of Christ" in a very real sense.

1. Lead the devotions at the Board meetings or arrange for someone else to do so.

2. Plan, with the Devotional Life Chairman in each chapter, a devotion related to the study program.

3. Plan Quiet Days, Retreats, Schools of Prayer, Corporate Communion, World Day of Prayer observance, the formation of Bible study-prayer groups.

4. Worship and prayer should be the subject of at least one program during the year. Plan this in advance with the program committee.

5. Attend the Convocational Workshop on Devotional Life.

6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life for any assistance.

6. Serve on Board of Church Women United in N. C.

7. Attend all ECW Diocesan Board meetings, Seminars and Annual Meetings.

8. Send copies of annual report to chairman of the Annual Meeting in time for the report to go into delegates' packets.

Responsibilities—Branch

1. Consult with Rector of the Parish about the needs within the Parish and with the County Social Services Department about needs in the community.

2. Give serious consideration to suggestions from Diocesan CSR Secretary about Diocesan and World Service.

7. Serve on the Christian Social Ministries Committee if your Parish has one.

8. Plan ahead. Don't wait until the year's activities are started before having definite projects to suggest. It is important to start early in the fall.

9. Have information available concerning worthy causes on which to spend the money raised by the Ways and Means Committee.

10. Attend Convocation meetings, Spring Planning Day, Annual Meeting, Church Women United meetings (if your community has this organization) and any local meetings of other groups that are concerned with Social problems.

11. Inform your Branch of the needs at Penick Home and Thompson Child Care Services.

12. Cooperate with other Episcopal Churches and churches of other denominations for projects too big for one Parish.

13. Before March 15th each year, send a report of your year's activities to the Diocesan CSR Secretary.

14. Remember it is your job to help others to provide for the poor, feed the hungry, transport the aged, help the retarded and handicapped, visit the shut-ins in your community and to cooperate with Church World Service, CROP, APSO, HOPE, Bread for the World, Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief and other similar agencies.

MISSIONS

MRS. OSCAR CRANZ

3808 Bonward Drive, Charlotte, N.C.

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church.

2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through your Diocesan pledge. This will enable the churchwomen on the Diocesan level to accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggested projects will be sent upon request.

3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this Diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. Oscar Cranz, Secretary (see above address) and mailed to her by NOVEMBER 15.

4. By action of the 1978 Annual Meeting, the 1979 Epiphany offering will go to the Scholarship Fund, St. Mary's School, Springfield, South Dakota. Please encourage your branch to seriously consider participating in this offering. Send it to the Diocesan Treasurer.

5. Many branches have expressed interest in assigning a specific missionary to each convocation. The purpose is to concentrate their monies, prayers etc. on one or two people and become more closely involved with them.

Below are the 1978-1979 assignments.

NORTHEAST—Jocelyn Gordon, Sister Adelaide

NORTHWEST—Mrs. Harvey Simmonds, Miss Catherine Jones

SOUTHWEST—Mrs. Henry Chapman, The Rev. James Fortune

SANDHILLS—Stuart and Everall Peele

6. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate. Please do your part to make this a successful year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. THOMAS J. RANDALL
923 W. Horah Street, Salisbury 28144

"And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding, the Spirit of Counsel and Might, the Spirit of Knowledge and the fear of the Lord." This moving passage from Isaiah II:2 applies not only at Confirmation, but to us as concerned leaders in Christian Education as we venture into the basic interests and needs of our lives as well as of others in the world today. There are many sources for what wisdom we need and we should explore them in many ways. Attendance at the Spring Workshops will have provided many of us with ideas for study, books to order and to consider, and suggestions from other branches for successful programs. Just the idea of congenial fellowship among

Episcopal women at this time of meditation and communion can be inspiring for our future experience. If I or any of the Diocesan officers can provide you with any help with themes on Missions, Christian Social Relations, etc., please don't hesitate to call on us. Participation in the Annual Conference whether at Kanuga or the Seminar at Quail Roost in Durham, N. C. is also recommended because new ideas and formats are often generated here. This opportunity for learning and relaxing in a beautiful setting can be invaluable.

A theme for your new year may be developed in many ways and we should remember that books are not our sole resource—people, communities, multi-media, church and learning institutions are also at our fingertips when we look for ways to present some facet of Christian Education. It is also important to remember that programs need not be a static experience each year—they can be varied as women are varied and presented in different ways by the individual speaker or by panel discussion, by them teaching (perhaps by one Branch member and one outsider from the community) or by round robin contributions. Once you have selected your program topic, spend some time planning an unusual form of presentation.

Keep in touch with new books and new ideas by reading faithfully your copies of The Episcopalian, The Living Church, and The Churchman. When you go to Kanuga, Quail Roost, Richmond or Atlanta remember to browse in the appropriate bookstores for new publications. Just don't neglect taking a reading of what your women really need and want—some may want to make in-depth studies of certain books of the Bible once again or an understanding of charismatic movements; some may want Episcopal Church history and the current trends of today. Circulate not only in bookstores and libraries but among your women, to know them and find direction for what we all need in furthering our concern for others—hopefully in renewing our commitment together in faith and love of God and his son Jesus Christ!

I am listing some books which will be helpful in program planning and some which I commend for your reading pleasure and others for you spiritual growth.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. DON BLANTON

Country Club Circle, Lexington, N.C. 27292

We believe that every one embodies a unique personal ministry. It is the purpose of this office to help churchwomen find their personal ministry and encourage them to pursue it.

Another duty of our office is to maintain a relationship with Episcopal students as they leave home to broaden their lives.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

1. Know ourselves better through prayer and study.
2. Explore our own interests, talents and gifts; then own, acclaim and use them!
3. Remind each other that women are members of the "Ministry of the Laity."
4. Encourage the knowledge that ministry is not confined to the church alone.
5. Support all women in their quest for selfhood and service.
6. Affirm our womanhood.
7. Take comfort in knowing that: "anytime I am helping other people in any way I am ministering to them; I am showing them God's love through my action and my being."

COLLEGE WORK

The college work section of this office seeks to maintain a relationship with Episcopal students.

1. Students who are away at college—

- a. Keep in touch with students. Make a file on each student and send birthday, Christmas, and Easter cards, newsletters, etc.

- b. Arrange get-together or honor the students at a regular church occasion such as a coffee hour after church service.
- c. Plan a Sunday for college students and use them as acolytes, lay readers and ushers.
2. Students who come to local colleges—
 - a. Check with local colleges and determine what the relationship can be between Churchwomen and Episcopal students.
 - b. Encourage students to be a part of church program.
3. College chaplain will visit and explain their role on college campus. Invite a chaplain to speak at Churchwomen's meeting or plan a special church service for the presentation.

PROMOTION

MRS. M. L. FINCH
2110 St. Mary's Street, Raleigh 27608

The essential duty of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary is to promote the ideas and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is her duty to keep all churchwomen informed of things to come and to report on noteworthy activities which have taken place. She is available to assist branch officers in promoting individual programs as well as diocesan sponsored ones. The effectiveness of this job depends somewhat on her being informed by local churchwomen about their endeavors.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that someone is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the Diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. CHARLES SHAFFER
716 Gimghoul Drive, Chapel Hill 27514

Altar Work is rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

This office will provide help in:

- 1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
- 2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
- 3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
- 4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
- 5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.
- 6. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need.
- 7. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. WALLY AUSLEY
215 Reynolds Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27609

The Church Periodical Club, serving the ministry of the printed word since 1888, is the only organization in the Episcopal Church devoted solely to supplying free printed material to those who cannot otherwise obtain it. Its steadily expanding, adaptable program is unique among the churches in giving free materials to responsible recipients they themselves specify. It is supported by contributions and most of its work is done by volunteers.

CPC functions on all levels, nationally, world-wide, locally—in parishes, communities, dioceses. Religious, educational, technical, recreational books, magazines, leaflets are provided for the most remote places and for nearest neighbors. Needs that exceed local resources are referred to National Books Fund.

This fund is directed by a committee of experienced volunteers, meeting to evaluate each request. Most are granted as far as funds permit. National Books Fund projects have financed a translation of the Prayer Book in Malay to giving medical journals to the stations served by the S. S. Hope.

How can CPC become alive in your Parish?

1. Pray for the work of CPC for guidance asking God to direct you in spreading the Good News with the printed word.

2. Plan to publicize the work of CPC to all men, women and children in your parish by observing the first Sunday in October. (CPC Sunday)

3. Plan to educate your parish on CPC Sunday in the importance of continuing to supply printed materials to people around the world.

4. Use your parish bulletin and meetings in your parish to remind them of CPC Sunday in October. Use the CPC prayers at all services and meetings that week in your parish.

In our Diocese, the CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a Diocesan Director of CPC and carried out by CPC secretaries in the branches. The Secretary of Missions could also serve as CPC Secretary in those churches of small membership.

NOTES:

All contributions should be sent to the Diocesan Director of CPC. All contributions should be made by check payable to Church Periodical Club. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. Enclose a memo showing the source so proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the CPC secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

PRESIDENT'S CROSS

The engraved silver Celtic cross worn by the Diocesan President during her term of office was a gift of Mrs. Leslie Evans in 1956. She wore the cross during her administration as President of the Woman's Auxiliary and presented it to Mrs. T. P. Thomas at her installation at Annual Meeting, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh, in 1958. The back of the cross bears the inscription: "President, Woman's Auxiliary, Diocese of North Carolina."

PENDULA

The pendula is worn by all Diocesan Past-Presidents in the IV Province. It is an oval of gold or silver, with a Chi-Rho symbol bearing seventeen stars on the crossbars. The stars represent the number of Diocese in the Province. The pendula is a gift to our Retiring Diocesan President by Dr. Philip DeWolfe, now of Florida, in memory of his mother, Elizabeth Owens DeWolfe. Dr. DeWolfe's wife, Anne, was a member of our Diocesan Executive Board in 1963 when the decision was made to give the pendula to retiring Diocesan Presidents. At that time North Carolina was the only Diocese in the Province which did not present one to its President. Through Dr. DeWolfe's generosity, all living Past-Presidents were presented with a pendula at Annual Meeting at St. Michael's Church, Raleigh, in 1963. Mrs. James L. Godfrey of Chapel Hill was the Diocesan President when this tradition was begun in our Diocese.

ALMS BASIN

The U.T.O. Alms Basin is made of silver and gold collected from all parishes in the Diocese of North Carolina; an idea conceived by Mrs. B. W. Roberts. Mrs. Brown Patterson designed the center seal made up of gold wedding rings, pins and crosses donated. Mr. Louis Glasier was the Ecclesiastical craftsman. It was dedicated by Bishop Penick at Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955 in Chapel Hill. It is available for Spring and Fall Ingathering upon request to the U.T.O. Secretary.

Message for the Episcopal Churchwomen's Yearbook & 1979-80
from the Right Reverend Thomas A. Fraser
Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina

It was not too many years ago that there was talk that the Episcopal Churchwomen as an organization were on their way out. I do not know about the National Church, but I do know about the Diocese of North Carolina. It is very much alive!

The Episcopal Churchwomen of this diocese have just completed what I feel to be one of the most exciting Annual Meetings that I have attended. The program, the worship, the involvement, the down-to-earth attitude as well as the substance of the reports indicate a group of contemporary women who are concerned about the mission of the Church and they are willing to put their shoulders to the wheel to see that the job gets done.

As I review the life of the diocese, it would be true to say that the Episcopal Churchwomen are becoming a real leaven in the loaf. They have their eyes on the target of commitment to the Christian Gospel and their ministry to make that Gospel relevant to each of us where we are today.

Faithfully, Your Bishop
Thomas A. Fraser

IN MEMORIAM

LEAH GRAVES PEOPLES

Born: January 12, 1896 in Ashville, North Carolina

Died: March 30, 1979 in Atlanta, Georgia, where she lived with her daughter in her last years.

Resident of Oxford, North Carolina from 1926 to 1974, where she and her husband, Edward G. Peoples, were faithful communicants of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and where she served as a member of the Board of the Richard H. Thornton Library.

She is survived by two sons, Lt. Col. L. J. Peoples and Edward G. Peoples, Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Gerald C. Osgood; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Graves Banister; nine grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

In the Episcopal Churchwomen, she was a loyal and loving worker, serving in her Branch as President and in all other offices. She served in the Diocese as Secretary of Christian Education, as Diocesan President in 1944-45 and '46 and also as President during the unexpired term of Mrs. U. T. Homes in 1942-43. She was a delegate to three National Triennial Conventions for the Diocese.

She served in the IV Province as the President of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Province of Sewanee from 1951 to 1954 and as a member of the Department of Christian Education in 1953.

In her term of office as President of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary during the war years, she worked to adapt the women's work in the church to the needs of the times of "assurance of the goodness, love, purpose, and power of God, and the confidence in the ultimate victory, which cometh from God." She also initiated Bishop Penick's Quiet Hour for the Executive Board before Annual Meeting, a tradition of most lasting consequence. She was a leader of the Women of the Church in support of the United Nations Charter.

She was a beautiful lady. She has been described by her friends as pleasant, real, sincere, dear, and twinkle-eyed. Her keen sense of humor, her brave spirit and her warm intelligence were ever present in her path through life on this earth.

Thanks be to God for His servant, Leah. With all the angels and arch-angels may she go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in His heavenly Kingdom.

PRAYERS

RENEWAL

Almighty God, by whose Holy Spirit your children are led to acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior; grant that this same Spirit may so dwell in us that we may be daily renewed, and manifest in our lives the Love that reaches out in blessing to all people. Empower us to help build up your Kingdom on earth to your honor and glory. We ask this, gracious Father, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GUIDANCE

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind, help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and people may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MISSIONS

Almighty God, help us we pray Thee, to shed abroad the light of Thy church in all the world. Give us greater zeal for Thy Kingdom, that we may offer abundantly our prayers, our work, and our gifts; so that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea, through Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

Send us, O God, as Thy messengers to hearts without a home, to lives without love, to the crowds without a guide. Send us to the children whom none have blessed, to the famished whom none have visited, to the fallen whom none have lifted, to the bereaved whom none have comforted. Kindle Thy flame on the altars of our hearts, that others may be warmed thereby; causing Thy light to shine in our souls, that others may see the way; keep our sympathies and insight ready, our wills keen, our hands quick to help our brothers in their need; for Christ's sake. Amen.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

O God, who art the hope of all peoples everywhere, we thank Thee for the outpourings of love and generosity which have enabled us to respond to some of the world's needs in places far and near; guide us as we face changing times and new frontiers; keep our hearts thankful and our vision clear as we work to fulfill our vocation and ministry as members of the body of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Accept, O Father, this joyful sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise, and bless these gifts to the setting forward of Thy Kingdom; that as we have gratefully received the benefits Thy bounty has bestowed, so we may cheerfully share them with Thy children in all the world; for His sake whose life and death and rising to life again were a song of praise to Thee, O Thou Most Holy, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

O God, who has sent Thy beloved Son to be unto us the Way, the Truth and the Life; grant that we, looking unto Him may set forward the teaching power of Thy Church, to the nurture of Thy children, the increase of Thy Kingdom and the glory of Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARIES

O Lord and Heavenly Father, without whom we can do no good thing, but with whose help even Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, we beseech Thee to prosper the work of all Thy missionaries, wherever they may be (and especially the work of Thy servant) Grant them the wisdom to know and the strength to do Thy will, and bless them with the hope and consolation of Thy heavenly promises, for the sake of Thy Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

COLLEGE WORK AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

We pray, O Lord, for guidance as we search for laborers for Thy harvest. May we remember that whatever our calling, it may be directed to Thee. Bless teachers, students, and chaplains at all institutions of learning. Open our eyes that we may find and encourage the right young men and women for full time church work. In Jesus' name. Amen.

THE CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

O Lord Jesus Christ, Who art the Light of the World, pour out, we beseech Thee, upon all Thy servants Thy Holy Spirit of Wisdom and understanding that they may know the hope of Thy calling, the riches of Thine inheritance in the saints, and the greatness of Thy power to us who believe. More especially we pray Thee to direct and prosper the Church Periodical Club that in all its prayer and labor it may be enabled to make the light of Thy glory shine forth in the dark places of the earth. And do Thou of Thy mercy and grace establish Thy Church in the truth of Thy Gospel, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever One God, world without end. Amen.

USE BEFORE AND AT THE TIME OF THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS

O Holy Spirit, Whose guidance and inspiration alone can enable us to fulfill the Will of God, teach us, we pray Thee, the dignity of our work as churchwomen, and give us grace to choose as our leaders those whom Thou dost call to Thy faithful service. To those so chosen give a spirit of reverence in the exercise of their office, and to all of us a deep sense of our obligation in the discharge of every duty, to do all to the glory of God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION

May the blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, rest upon us and upon all work and worship done in His name. May He give us light to guide us, courage to support us, and love to unite us, now and forevermore. Amen.

SERVICE FOR INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

For Branch Use

The Officers and Board shall advance to the Altar rail, then the President shall say: Reverend Sir, on behalf of the women of Church, I present to you the Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen of this parish.

RECTOR: Let us pray.

Blessed Spirit of God, come to these Thy servants in all Thy fullness and power. Compass their minds with wisdom. Fire their wills with Thy might. Melt their hearts with Thy love. Through Thy grace make them wholly Thine until they are lost in Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Will you accept the responsibilities placed upon you, and endeavor to discharge the duties of leadership to the best of your ability?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you, through private prayer, Bible study, and regular attendance at the Holy Communion, seek to grow in knowledge of God and His purpose for you, and for the world?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Will you strive by word and deed for the advancement of God's kingdom in this parish and beyond?

OFFICERS: We will.

RECTOR: Let us pray:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, visit, we pray Thee, these officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen with Thy love. Enlighten their minds more and more with the light of the Gospel so that they may walk before Thee in humility, yet with a high sense of the great privilege of their responsibility. Save them from complacency and fear of new ways; and give them selflessness—patience—courage—gentleness—thankfulness—humor—faithfulness—enthusiasm—wisdom. So, as they daily present themselves to Thee for renewal, may they be even stronger channels of Thy grace, and instruments of Thy will in the spiritual life of the Diocese. Amen.

The Blessings of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

SERVICE OF INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS FOR THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Let those who have been elected stand before the Bishop and then let him say:

It is right and fitting that those who have been duly elected as Officers of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, should be formally received and admitted into their respective offices in your presence; and that we should ask the blessings of God upon them for their support and guidance in the performance of the duties which you have laid upon them.

O Lord, save these Thy servants,
Who put their trust in Thee,
Send them help from the holy place,
And evermore mightily defend them,
O Lord, hear our prayer.
And let our cry come unto Thee.

Let us pray.

Our Father . . .

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favour, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy name, and finally by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the giver of all good gifts; give Thy Grace, we humbly beseech Thee, to these Thy servants who have been chosen to serve Thee in the special work for which they have been selected; grant unto them zeal and earnestness in the performance of their office; wisdom and strength to meet each day their task; and love in the doing of it; and give them vision to see their opportunities for service, to the glory of Thy great name and the benefit of Thy Holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bless us, O God, with the vision of Thy Being and Thy Beauty, that in the strength of it we may work without haste and without rest; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I receive and admit you to the office of Be faithful, zealous, sincere and humble in all your tasks, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the guiding fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you evermore. Amen.

BENEDICTION

The Father, Son and Holy Ghost bless, preserve and keep you, in your work, in your worship, this day and always, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Episcopal Churchwomen
Ninety-Seventh Annual Meeting, May 1-2, 1979
St. Luke's Church
Salisbury, N.C.

Bishop Fraser, Delegates, and Guests: This is the Ninety-seventh Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of our Diocese and the new President who is installed tomorrow will serve until our 100th anniversary. As I reflect on this, I am keenly aware of the dedicated and committed Christian women who have preceeded us and the legacy they have left.

I am awed when I think of all that Churchwomen have accomplished within the church, in our communities and in the world during these years—the differences we have made in the quality of the lives of others. I glory in the courage of the women who have been the consciousness-raisers where important issues face the church and society. I am impressed with the historic patience of our mothers and grandmothers who accepted their roles in the church with love and dedication while having neither voice nor vote. I am thankful for the untiring efforts of the churchwomen who worked for 24 years to bring that omission to an end. I am excited to see women now taking their places in decision-making positions at all levels in the church. I am grateful for my heritage as an Episcopal Churchwoman.

The organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in our Diocese continues to be a viable vehicle through which many women respond to their calls to ministry. There are those in the church who question our existence, thinking we have outlived our purpose; yet there are others who wonder and marvel at the way we continue to flourish while other organizations flounder and fail. My answer to them is that we continue to exist and to flourish because women have always been willing to dare, to reach out in faith; we are not afraid of change, and so we have always been on the leading edge of what is happening in the church. While the institutional church sits and waits to move on issues, the women leap ahead in faith, and act. We have an innate sense of loving concern about the needs of others and we respond to them. We provide continuing opportunities for education and spiritual growth; we are actively involved in numerous outreach projects; we raise money for missions at home, in the nation and abroad. We also offer leadership training for women and act as a support group for them. I believe that the ministry of the ECW is valid and is still vital to the life of the church.

It is interesting to note that at this time there are only two parish churches which do not have either a branch of the Episcopal Churchwomen or a liaison relationship with us. Of the 17 missions that are not affiliated in any way, 13 of them are unorganized. Most of our branches are small because we are a Diocese of small churches—80% of our churches have 300 or less members. One problem that concerns Branch officers is the lack of participation by all women in their churches. But since records of Annual Meetings for the past ninety years show this has always been true, it should by now be a non-issue for us. Instead let us be concerned with the quality of leadership, commitment and vision we offer the church.

The activities of churchwomen this past year attest to their vitality. Attendance at Annual Meeting of 1978 was the largest in our history. Exhibits at the resource fair were proof of the creativity and resourcefulness of the churchwomen in the Diocese as they shared with one another ways in which they exercise their ministries.

The year was not without crisis. A last minute cancellation by our Fall Seminar leader proved to be a blessing and not a disaster when the Rev. John Yates of Sewickley, Pennsylvania agreed to come and lead it for us. The fact that we continue to fill this conference to capacity is indicative that it is answering the desire of women for continuing christian education. Our sixth seminar this October will have Ms. Verna Dozier, one of our church's greatest Lay Bible teachers, as leader. She was one of the keynote speakers at Triennial in Minneapolis and is in such great demand throughout the country that it has taken us two years to get on her calendar.

Our theme, "Mine Eyes Have Seen Thy Salvation," will be a study of the book of Luke, which is the National Church's chosen book of study for advent, 1979.

Attendance at our worship retreat in February was poor, but for those who braved the snow and joined the Rev. William Dols to explore "Our Many Splendored Selves," it was a great experience and one to be long remembered for a unique approach to study of the parables. The response to our last several worship retreats however, has caused us to evaluate the need for them. At one time the Churchwomen offered almost the only opportunities available for retreats and quiet days, but in recent years the need for solitude and reflection has become so vital for Christians that parishes and other organizations are also responding and there are now numerous organized activities available to address those needs. Based on these facts, and the information that the Terraces is to be placed on the market to be sold, the Executive Board made a decision at its February Board meeting not to hold a retreat in 1980.

Spring planning days were well attended and members of the Executive Board believe this is one of our most successful Diocesan activities. Your Comments, indicating that they are helpful in your planning, and prepare you to do a better job in your Branch offices, assures us that we are meeting your needs. This year the Diocesan Education and Training Committee under the leadership of the Rev. Harrison Simons, offered us its professional expertise and led our Christian Education Workshops; these proved particularly valuable to those responsible for christian education in the branches.

Our financial condition is sound and we are delighted to report that many of you increased your Branch pledges to the Diocese enabling us to support the work of the church beyond the Diocese and to continue giving scholarships to our institutions. We hope that many others will follow your lead this year. Your giving to the Christmas Missionary Fund and Epiphany Offering showed a slight decrease in 1978, but the greatest change is reflected in your "specials" which is almost $10,000 less than last year. It would be interesting to know if this is the result of inflation or because the Branch treasurers do not send all monies through the Diocesan Treasurer's Office. Our united thank offering continues to increase and totaled $39,577.64 this year, a witness to your belief in this program. Your response to the Migrant Fund has been tremendous and it now totals over $3,500.00. At the Executive Board Meeting this morning we agreed to use $2,000.00 of this fund to provide insurance, gasoline, and maintenance for the second hand station wagon given the Health Care Center at Newton Grove by St. Paul's Church, Winston-Salem. Expenditure of monies for this need seems to meet our guidelines of "emergency needs not met by other Agencies." A vehicle without insurance, gasoline and proper maintenance meets no need at all, but with them, it will be able to provide the needed transportation to get migrants and seasonal farm workers to the doctor and to Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill when necessary. The total amount of money handled by the treasurer or appropriate board member during 1978 was over $113,000.00.

While our Diocesan organization is on a sound financial basis, at the national level the Triennial Meeting is facing very real problems. At Annual Meeting last year, I reviewed for you the history of Triennial funding and the reasons for the present difficulties. That meeting passed a Resolution requesting that Triennial be included in the Executive Council Program Budget. Many other dioceses followed our lead. We have been advised from the Episcopal Church Center in New York that the Triennial has been included in the proposed budget for the coming triennium as a line item for $20,000.00 annually. But even this, with the legacy income, still provides only partial funding for the projected cost of future Triennials. Our delegates and the Executive Board have taken a look at our options. Rather than undertaking a capital funds drive in the future or assessing each Branch, we believe it is better stewardship for the Triennial Meeting to be tailored to stay within its income and simplify its meetings. Then if assessments are absolutely necessary, they should be small and levied on the Diocesan organizations. Tomorrow two Resolutions addressing this issue will be presented for your consideration.

The Diocesan financial campaign of $2 million for Venture in Mission and the Camp and Conference Center began in January. The Diocesan council is firmly committed to proceed with the conference center only as the money is received. Earlier I stated that the willingness of churchwomen to dare, to take a step in faith, is one of the reasons we continue to be a vital organization. We have another chance now to step out in faith—are you willing to take the risk? Will the women of the Diocese agree to build one of the cottages at the conference center and accept a goal of at least $100,000 to do this? No pledges, no assessments, but money freely given from all of us working together. Acknowledging that this commitment will change branch and Diocesan giving patterns for the next four years—will it not be worth it? If we designate most of our fund raising in this direction, think what we could do! Why, $30,000 a year would not only build a cottage, but would furnish it! My faith in what women, with God's help, can accomplish, is boundless. How much are you willing to risk so the Church will have a place to gather enabling us to become the Church sent into the world to teach and to act.

I am also committed to Venture in Mission. I hope you are. As Bishop Stewart Alexander has said, "Through Venture in Mission God grants the Episcopal Church another chance, to redeem our unconcern with growth, our timidity in mission and our missed opportunities of yesterday." From your pledges to the Diocesan ECW we plan to support Venture for the length of the campaign. I urge you to demonstrate your commitment to these projects with the money you allocate for work outside the Diocese.

As I have stated before, the church is affected by changes in society. Since our single population has increased and more women have returned to the business world, a need to minister to them has emerged and we recognize that our presently structure organizations are not able to do the requisite job. The Churchwomen have recognized that new programs need to be designed to meet this new constituency. Toward this end, we conducted a survey—hoping to get some direction for the kinds of programs that would interest working women and given them spiritual support. What we learned was that they desire guidance through retreats as well as practical help and information. Almost all indicated that they needed a degree of fellowship not possible solely through Sunday morning church attendance. They may require new quality programs at the parish level since their available time is limited. Because concern for working women and single persons, male and female, constitutes a problem that is very real in most parishes, I would like to see our Diocese sponsor a day-long conference for these members and offer mini-workshops on issues which are of concern to them: legal matters, financial advice, gift identification, single parenting leadership skills, as well as some opportunity for spiritual and educational growth. This is an area where the church at large needs to use creative thinking and offer new leadership.

During the past two Annual Meetings, we have looked at opportunities available to us for Christian service. This year we will look within ourselves to discover our unique gifts of ministry. Once we have identified, claimed and affirmed them, we will be able to exercise our special "Ministry—This Gift to Christians" in a more positive way. Ms. Patricia Page of the National Institute of Lay Training will lead us on this journey of self discovery.

As my term of office comes to an end, I am convinced that the three-year tenure should not be changed. The Presidency is a full-time job: the demands are sometimes overwhelming. However, I believe a term of less than three years would hinder the quality of leadership and vision that is possible only with the longer term of office.

The joys of my years as president have been many; none more fulfilling than my visits to your Branches and the opportunity to know you. The experiences which were afforded me placed me in historical moments in the life of the Church, and I am grateful for them. It has been my privilege to serve at a time when women are being given opportunities of ministry in the Church never before possible and I have felt it to be my responsibility to speak for them and to remind the Church in our Diocese that it was rarely offering us opportunities to serve in policy-making and leadership positions. It is with thanksgiving that I tell you many heard and have responded during these three years. In some quarters of the Church, however, women continue to be used as tokens, therefore, we must continue to support one another as we seek to change the patterns of the past. It has been a personal satisfaction to see women take a renewed interest in the Churchwomen and to view the different methods by which they meet the needs of their parishes. We have finally learned that structures need not be identical, but may be tailored to individual situations. I hope we are learning that small can be great—it is creativity and vision that make it so.

When I accepted the presidency, I spoke of the choice between Mudholes and Horizons. Choosing Horizons is better—not as easy, not as comfortable, but far more exciting and challenging, demanding and rewarding. Once you lift your eyes, you will never be content to go back to the Mudhole.

I am grateful to our loving Lord for the privilege of serving as president of the Churchwomen of the Diocese. I thank you for your love, support and enthusiasm—and your willingness to dare. My husband and my daughter accepted this office with me and we made a commitment that for three years the Episcopal Churchwomen would come first in our family. My heart is filled with gratitude for their love and support and faithfulness to this commitment during these years of my joyful service to the women in the Diocese.

God bless you all.

“Let us go forth into the world to love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of his spirit.”

PRESIDENT’S ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

Bishop Fraser, Delegates, and Visitors:

The Episcopal Churchwomen of this Diocese have been blessed the past three years with the leadership of Scott Evans. As I’ve observed her rather closely this past year, my admiration is boundless. She is a fine administrator, a devoted Churchwoman, and a committed Christian—whose vision, like that of the eagle, is limited only by the horizon. She is one special lady! Scott, you have our thanks and our love.

Someone gave me a book entitled Here Am I, Send Aaron; there have been quite a few times in the past year that I wanted to reply in like manner. But here am I, and here are you.

In the Gospel of John, we read the story of a small boy with two fishes and five barley loaves. The lad offered his small lunch to feed 5000!! And God made it not only sufficient but abundant. I heard a homily that brought this familiar story to a new light for me. As God calls us to minister, we may feel inadequate and overwhelmed, but if we accept His call and offer our gifts and talents to Him, He will make them sufficient, even abundant.

Our call to minister will be different for each of us. Whether we minister in the kitchen, tending the garden, nursing the sick, visiting the homebound, comforting the lonely, caring for the Altar—God can use our talents to do his work. I expect even a Bishop ministers more effectively because of the cook’s ministry!

But how can we minister or even hear God’s call unless we listen? It is good to be involved in the Church, the community, and the world; but unless we first know God through our Lord, Jesus Christ, how can we bring Christ to a hungry world? So first we must have time with God privately and in fellowship with others in order to step out and do the work to which we are called.

There is much work to be done. More women are working than ever before: over forty-one million. Twenty-three million of these are also homemakers and wives; eighteen million are heads of households, either divorcees or widows. The inflation rate is currently over ten percent and eating into savings and budgets at an alarming rate. One out of four persons over sixty-five lives in poverty; one out of two persons over seventy-five lives in poverty. Even among the affluent, upper-income families are worrying about making ends meet. The roles and attitudes of women are changing. Our roles in our homes, in the business world, and in the Church are changing. Certainly many of us are seeing ourselves very differently from our self-view of ten years ago. We're recognizing needs, talents, and potentials that lay dormant a short time ago. We're on unfamiliar ground and not too sure of the direction we should follow.

Sometimes we wish for a return to safer, more traditional ways. But some of us have glimpsed the openness, freedom, and adventure of new roles and it's exciting, if a bit scary. We women have gone out on a limb before and stepped out to do God's work on faith. So wherever we're led to minister, let our joyful response be:

"God, give us grace to live what you have dreamed for us."

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA

Minutes of the Annual Meeting May 1, and 2, 1979

Mrs. Eric C. Flannagan, Jr., Chairman of the Committee on Tenure and Structure, made a report on investigations to date of the viability of the present organizational structure of the Churchwomen and possible re-structure. She said her committee had attempted to gauge the importance of three-year terms of service on the Board in relation to the work of those officers. The committee recommends that tenure remain as presently set forth in the Constitution but that the possibility of combining offices be considered as vacancies occur.

The following amended article of the constitution was presented. It is designed to permit the Treasurer to be elected one year before taking office; this was moved by Mrs. Salinger, seconded by Mrs. McManus, and was passed:

Proposed Amendment Constitution and By-Laws
Episcopal Churchwomen Diocese of North Carolina

ARTICLE VIII. Section 3. Tenure.

Amend this section to read:

"ALL DIOCESAN OFFICERS SHALL BE ELECTED FOR A TERM OF THREE YEARS: THE UNITED THANK OFFERING TREASURER, THE SECRETARY OF CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK, AND THE SECRETARY OF DEVOTIONAL LIFE TO BE ELECTED AT THE FIRST ANNUAL MEETING AFTER THE TRIENNIAL; THE PRESIDENT-ELECT, THE SECRETARY OF MISSION, AND THE SECRETARY OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS TO BE ELECTED AT THE SECOND ANNUAL MEETING AFTER THE TRIENNIAL; THE PRESIDENT-ELECT TO TAKE OFFICE AS PRESIDENT AT THE THIRD ANNUAL MEETING AFTER THE TRIENNIAL; THE VICE PRESIDENT, THE SECRETARY OF PROMOTION, AND THE SECRETARY OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND TREASURER-ELECT TO BE ELECTED AT THE THIRD ANNUAL MEETING AFTER THE TRIENNIAL, THE TREASURER-ELECT TO TAKE OFFICE AS TREASURER AT THE FIRST ANNUAL MEETING AFTER THE TRIENNIAL."

Mrs. Don Blanton, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, stressed the importance of dedication to diocesan work. This is characteristic of those who accept positions on the Board. The following slate was presented:

Report of Nominating Committee

NOMINEES

- Vice President Mrs. William E. Adair, Jr., St. Stephen's, Erwin, N.C.
- Treasurer Elect Mrs. Nathaniel W. Smith, St. Michael's, Raleigh, N.C.
- Christian Education: Mrs. Joel K. Bourne, Calvary Church, Tarboro, N.C.
- Promotion Mrs. John T. Gregory, Holy Trinity, Greensboro, N.C.

There being no nominations from the floor, Mrs. Blanton, on behalf of her committee, moved the acceptance of this slate. The motion was seconded and was accepted. The nominated officers were thereby elected.

Mrs. Evans introduced Ms. Patricia Page, Director of Training of the National Institute of Lay Training and Adjunct Professor at General Seminary who talked on "Ministry is a Gift to Christians" and then conducted a brief Gift Identification Workshop for delegates. Following the workshop a panel of three lay persons, Mrs. F. Durant Bell, Mrs. D. St. Pierre Du Bose, and Mrs. James Prevatt, joined Ms. Page and told how they had discovered their spiritual gifts and were using them to minister to others. The Rev. Peter Keese discussed the validation of the ministry of the laity from the viewpoint of the Church. Ms. Page suggested we use the process she had introduced to discover our gifts and then to use them in our practice of ministry.

The session was recessed at 5:00 p.m. after the singing of Hymn 547, "Lord Speak to Me that I May Speak."

At six-thirty p.m. dinner was served at the Salisbury Country Club. This was followed by a service of evening worship at St. Luke's Church. The service was planned by the Diocesan Liturgical Commission, the Rev. Uly Gooch, Chairman. The Celebrant was Bishop Fraser and the sermon was delivered by the Rev. S. F. James Abbott. The United Thank Offering was presented by representatives of the Convocations and Past Presidents of the Episcopal Churchwomen, directed by Mrs. M. E. Motsinger.

SESSION II

Mrs. Evans convened the second session at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, May 2nd. Following the singing of Hymn No. 268, "I Bind Unto Myself Today," the Rev. Uly Gooch gave the opening prayers.

Mr. Frank Ballard, on behalf of Kanuga Camp and Conference Center, gave an exposition of a variety of summer programs and pointed out that Kanuga seeks to complement, not to replace, the facilities of a Diocesan Conference Center.

The Rev. Harrison Simons announced the Christian Education Summer Conference to be held at St. Mary's College next summer. He referred to the team of fourteen who built up the Christian Education Committee's program in the Diocese which has designed convergences, workshops, etc. aimed at developing the Christian ministry potential of the Diocese. Scholarship aid is available from the Diocese for attendance at the Summer Conference and other workshops. He thanked Mrs. W. G. Long for asking; the Diocesan Education and Training Committee to participate in the E.C.W. Spring Christian Education Workshops. The setting-up of a materials resource center is on the Committee's agenda for the near future.

Mrs. Long announced the 6th Annual Episcopal Churchwomen's Fall Seminar at Quail Roost Conference Center October 22-24. Ms. Verna Dozier, an outstanding Bible teacher of the Church, will lead the seminar on the theme "Mine Eyes Have Seen Thy Salvation." The Rev. King Cole St. Andrew's Church, Morehead City, N.C. will serve as chaplain. The conference fee is $60 for residents; $15 daily rate for commuters. A $25 deposit is necessary and is not refundable after October 10th. Commuters are asked to make a commitment to attend the entire time of the conference so that the full impact of the study can be assured.

Mrs. Eric G. Flannagan, Jr. gave a progress report on the Camp and Conference Center, tracing the beginning of the effort to build such a Center to the 94th Annual Meeting of the Diocese at which we asked for a feasibility study to be financed by the Churchwomen. The site having been given to the Diocese, the goal of $1,400,000 has been set and construction of the roadway to the site is beginning. The camp site and the lake are now available for day use, and the architect has been authorized to begin drawings of the main lodge, including sixteen double bedrooms. It is desired to add four single houses as funds become available, and the cost of each is estimated at $110,000. Mrs. Flannagan urged the Churchwomen to engage in active support and participation in raising funds.

Mrs. W. E. Adair, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, read the following resolutions, moving their adoption; after being seconded, they were passed.

A RESOLUTION ON THE CAMP AND CONFERENCE CENTER

Whereas THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN were one of three groups in the Diocese to first recognize the need for a Camp and Conference Center in the Diocese of North Carolina and requested the Diocesan Convention to explore the feasibility of building such a center and provided part of the funds for this study, and

Whereas the delegates to Annual Meeting passed a resolution in 1977 stating their continuing desire for a Camp and Conference Center and pledged to support it financially, if approved by the Diocesan Convention, and

Whereas the Diocesan Convention in 1978 did vote to undertake a capital funds campaign to build a Camp and Conference Center, and

Whereas the EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN are identified throughout the Diocese as being the catalysts for the project, therefore be it

Resolved that the EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN of North Carolina pledge at least $100,000 to the Capital Funds Campaign for the Camp and Conference Center, the monies to come from funds earned in Branches by various projects, through gifts and from bequests, and be it further

Resolved that this pledge is in addition to Parish goals and pledges, and be it further Resolved that this money be directed toward the construction of one of the cottages at the Conference Center which we request the Diocesan Council to name in honor of the EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA, and be it further

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Diocesan Council, the Campaign Committee, and The Communicant.

A RESOLUTION ADDRESSING CHANGES IN THE FOSTER CARE SYSTEM IN NORTH CAROLINA

Whereas the basic right of all children is to have a permanent home, and ideally a family to love, care for, and nurture them and

Whereas 10,000 children in North Carolina are presently in foster care, most of whom have no plans for a permanent home, no sense of direction, no purpose to their foster care experience, and

Whereas the present foster care system with heavy caseloads for social workers, high staff turnovers, nonpermanent homes for children, a lack of clear guidelines for entrance and exit from foster care results in inappropriate placement and infrequent review of the child's placement, and

Whereas North Carolina Senate Bill No. 276 proposes changes in our present foster care system that would achieve permanency planning for North Carolina's 10,000 foster care children by providing a tracking system, a clarification of standards for termination of parental rights, funds for training adoptive and foster parents of children with special needs, additional trained and experienced staff to work with these children and their parents, and ways and means to provide children and families with diagnostic resources, professional counseling, family therapy and rehabilitation services, therefore be it

Resolved that the delegates to this 97th Annual Meeting for the Episcopal Churchwomen go on record supporting North Carolina Senate Bill No. 276 and urge the members of their Parishes to join them in contacting their legislators in the General Assembly to support this bill, and be it further.

Resolved that delegates to this meeting become better informed about the problems of foster care and make a determined effort to make our local communities aware of the need to improve the present system.

RESOLUTION ON SHORTER LENGTH OF TRIENNIAL MEETING

Whereas the Triennial Meeting is valuable opportunity for leadership training, education, and inspiration and should continue, and

Whereas the expenses of the Triennial are increasing, due in part to the length of the Meeting, and

Whereas available funding is decreasing due to inflation and termination of former funding, and

Whereas the cost to dioceses of sending delegates to Triennial is increasing at a more rapid rate than the income of most dioceses, and

Whereas good stewardship demands wise use of time and money, therefore be it

Resolved that the Triennial continue to meet at the time and place of the General Convention, but only for seven (7) days.

RESOLUTION ON TRIENNIAL FUNDING FOR A SIMPLIFIED MEETING

Whereas good stewardship demands wise use of money, and deficit spending is neither wise nor sound fiscal policy, and

Whereas projected expenses for future Triennial Meetings far exceed projected income, and

Whereas it is increasingly difficult for many dioceses to meet current expenses, therefore, be it

Resolved that the Triennial Program and Planning Committee develop simplified plans for future Triennial Meetings that will stay within income for the triennium that is available from legacies, increased registration fees, a yearly diocesan assessment of $100 annually, and whatever funding is available from the Executive Council Program Budget.

Mrs. John McManus, Treasurer, presented the budget as proposed by the Finance Committee. The 1979 Financial Report was accepted as presented upon motion by Mrs. McManus. Her motion for the disbursement of the 1979 Surplus was approved and was allocated as follows: $200.00 for Heifer Project International (providing training for twenty families in animal care); three subscriptions of large print Forward for the Penick Library—$30.00; $100.00 for scholarships for Episcopal Churchwomen Training grants; and $599.61 for the Triennial Expense Fund. The 1980 budget in the amount of $21,500 for inside and outside the Diocese and for administration was moved by the Treasurer. Following an explanation of the deletion of the item of $100 for membership in Churchwomen United, Mrs. Mary Jane Bryant (St. Michael's, Raleigh) moved an amendment to the foregoing motion. Mrs. Wiley Long seconded the amendment. Several delegates spoke to the amendment, citing benefits emanating from membership in the organization. The amendment was approved. Mrs. McManus then moved that the 1980 budget, as recommended by the Finance Committee and amended by Annual Meeting, be approved. Her motion was seconded and the budget was adopted. The motion to allocate the 1980 Epiphany Offering to the Rt. Rev. David R. Cochrane, Bishop of Alaska, for his theological education fund was seconded and passed.

Mrs. Evans introduced Mrs. Joseph Trott (Charleston, S.C.), Fourth Provincial Representative to the United ThankOffering Committee, who addressed the meeting on regarding UTO as an Expression of Love and Concern for Others. She noted that the 1978 UTO total was $1,757,799.54 and that one grant had been assigned to North Carolina. In the year of Triennial, grants are considered by Triennial as a whole; thus the North Carolina delegation will have a voice in the next grant decisions.

Mr. John Powell, Executive Director of the Episcopal Child Care Services, traced changes in child care clientele from orphan care to care of those who are in trouble—particularly the emotionally-disturbed child. The Episcopal Child Care Services are moving toward becoming a modern treatment center for the emotionally-disturbed child and "how to help growth" is the theme of its mission. It is hoped that a chaplain will be included on the staff in the near future; there is an obvious need for this special ministry.

The Rev. Ralph Byrd, Coordinator of Youth Ministries for the Diocese of North Carolina, reported on the scope of youth activities offered by the Youth Ministries program—providing opportunities for youth to meet together and receive a theological grounding during that time, including the well-established Acolytes' Festival at Duke University; to afford better youth resources at the parish level; to provide better leadership training; to initiate new programs in outdoor discovery, disaster relief training, and participation in General Convention and Provincial work.

Bishop Fraser gave his Annual Message to the Churchwomen, addressing himself to the topic of the lay ministry and analyzing its various components: both active and passive roles. He said we must remember that each man is the same distance from Christ and that all need a firm grasp of the Gospel. He called upon Church people to recognize that they are bound to have faith and be faithful, to be both servants and leaders. The Lay Ministry should not be defined simply as activist; it can simply be; there is necessity for time to be quiet and time to pray.

Mrs. Evans called upon representatives from other Diocesan institutions to bring brief greetings. They were: Mr. James Burt, St. Augustine's College; The Rev. Philip Brown, Penick Home; and Mrs. Susan Ross, St. Mary's College.

Mrs. Willie J. Long, Jr., Chairman of the Committee on Memorials, presented a resolution memorializing the life of Leah Graves Peoples, Diocesan President of the Churchwomen 1942-43, 1944-45, and asked that it be filed in the minutes as a memorial to Mrs. Peoples.

A letter was read from the Rev. Lex Matthews, Diocesan Director of Christian Social Ministries, commending the concern and effective leadership of the out-going President of the Churchwomen, Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Motsinger, Chairman of the United Thank Offering, announced that the United Thank Offering at the Evening Worship Service on May 2nd had totalled $273.83. She also noted that the Fall Ingathering was $21,301.84.

Mrs. Max Stuart reported for the Courtesy Committee and presented its resolution of thanks.

Mrs. Evans announced that Mrs. Harris had appointed Mrs. Kent Mullikin as her secretary.

Bishop Fraser installed the new officers of the Executive Board. Mrs. Tyndall Harris, newly-installed President, gave the Presidential Address and announced that the Executive Board had accepted the invitation from Good Shepherd Church in Asheboro to host the 98th Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen, April 28 and 29, 1980. Following the singing of Hymn No. 279, "Praise to the Lord," Bishop Fraser pronounced the benediction and the 97th Annual Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Herman Salinger
Secretary

REPORT OF THE COURTESY COMMITTEE

Bishop Fraser, Mrs. Evans, members of the clergy, delegates, and visitors to the Ninety-Seventh Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina meeting in Salisbury at St. Luke's Church:

Our coming together here in historic Salisbury amid the roses, azaleas, and fuchsias has been an occasion of joy and blessing. We are grateful for Bishop Fraser's message and the sermon of the Rev. James Abbott, and we will go home with a renewed sense of our ministry.

It is with warm gratitude that we acknowledge the faithful, gracious, and devoted leadership of Scott Evans and look forward to the continued success of the Episcopal Churchwomen under our new President, Mary Harris.

We extend our thanks to the women of St. Luke's for their tireless efforts in our behalf, especially to the President, Mrs. Tomme Gamewell and her co-chairmen, Mrs. Ed. Taylor and Mrs. Paul Green. Our thanks also go to the Rectors, The Rev. Uly Gooch and the Rev. Jack G. Flintom, as well as Mrs. James Padgett and the choir for the beautiful Evening Service. We will long remember the choir's arrangement of "Amazing Grace" at the conclusion of the Holy Communion.

Episcopal Churchwomen
Diocese of North Carolina

We have examined the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina, as of December 31, 1978 and the related statement of changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. As to funds received, our examination was limited to recorded receipts.

In our opinion the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances and the related statement of changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of North Carolina as of December 31, 1978 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. The current year's supplementary data included in Schedule 1 have been subjected to the same auditing procedures and, in our opinion, are stated fairly in all material respects when considered in conjunction with the basic financial statements as a whole.

"Episcopal Churchwomen is an organization within the Church providing additional opportunities for worship, study, fellowship, stewardship, and service. It enables churchwomen to be informed about the total program of the Church; to participate more fully in carrying out the program of the Church; and to pioneer in new and creative forms of ministry."

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

General Church Program: The schedule of work adopted by General Convention to further the Church's Mission.

Executive Council: The Executive body of the Protestant Episcopal Church which carries out the Program of the Church between General Conventions.

Province: A number of Dioceses and Missionary Districts, adjacently located. There are nine provinces in the United States. The Diocese of North Carolina belongs to the Fourth Province, known as the Sewanee Province. The work of the province is educational and promotional.

Diocese: A group of parishes and missions under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. The Diocese of North Carolina has 63 parishes and 48 missions. See the Constitution and By-Laws in this Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in this Diocese.

Convocation: A number of parishes and missions within a given area in a diocese. There are five convocations in the Diocese of North Carolina. See the Constitution, Article X, in the Yearbook for the organization of the Episcopal Churchwomen in the Convocations in the Diocese.

Parish and Mission: A fellowship of redeemed people doing God's work under the leadership and direction of a priest. A parish is self-supporting, whereas a mission receives support from the diocese.

The organization of Episcopal Churchwomen in a parish or mission is known as a Branch and is patterned after the Diocesan organization. The membership is composed of communicants who choose to be active members. The structure should be simple and flexible, depending on the size, interests, and needs of the group.

In large parishes the Branch may be divided into smaller groups known as Chapters. The Chapters may have officers corresponding to those of the Branch.

EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

HISTORY

The first organized women's groups within the Church were called "Female Missionary Societies," as their purpose was to raise money for the support of missionaries. In 1871 General Convention recommended that the women of the Church, in every parish and mission in the land, be organized under the name of the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions." This was done in 1872 and for many years the chief function of organized women's groups of the Church was to raise money for the support of the missionary work of the Church.

When the Church reorganized its administration and the National Council was set up in 1919, it asked that the Woman's Auxiliary, instead of being auxiliary only to the Board of Missions, be made "The Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America." This change widened and increased the responsibilities and opportunities open to the women of the Church.

In recognition of the fact that women were a part of the Church, not just an auxiliary to it, in 1958 National Council created the General Division of Women's Work, the executive body on the national level, representing all of the work of all the women of the Church.

Following this action the Triennial Meeting recommended "Episcopal Churchwomen" as the designation for the women of a diocese, and "The Women of Church", as the name in the parish.

The history of women's work in the Diocese of North Carolina dates back to 1881 when the Diocese of North Carolina was the whole area of the state. The Rt. Rev. Theodore Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese, asked Mrs. John Wilkes of Charlotte to form a Diocesan organization of Woman's Auxiliary branches. In 1882 at the Diocesan Convention in Tarboro, representatives from six branches with a total membership of one hundred were organized as the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of North Carolina to the Board of Missions, thereby becoming one of twenty-six organized in the national church prior to 1883.

In April 1959 at the Annual Meeting in Winston-Salem, a resolution was adopted changing the name of the organization to "Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of North Carolina." It was suggested that, for uniformity, parish branches be known as "Episcopal Churchwomen of Parish".

DEVOTIONAL LIFE

MRS. JOHN W. S. DAVIS, SECRETARY
384 Bellwood Drive, Henderson, N.C. 27536

RESPONSIBILITIES AS AN INDIVIDUAL

1. You will be strengthened in offering help to others by participating fully in the devotional life of your parish.

2. Seek to enrich your own spiritual depth by following a Rule of Life, such as daily prayer and devotional reading, meditation and Bible study, daily surrender of self to God to be used as a channel for His service, and regular rededication to Christ through the Holy Communion.

3. Build up your own personal devotional library of prayers, books, pamphlets, poems, hymns and tapes.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS BRANCH SECRETARY

You have been assigned a particular sphere of work. You should not let it become separated from the work of the others on the Board. All work of the women should be at the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Keep your Board ever mindful of its reason for being, by seeing that worship is an integral part of all planning and work. It would be well to allow for a moment of prayer, either silent or oral, before taking final action on any matter, in order that each member may seek our Lord's will. The few minutes required for this practice could transform a group to being "the body of Christ" in a very real sense.

1. Lead the devotions at the Board meetings or arrange for someone else to do so.

2. Plan, with the Devotional Life Chairman in each chapter, a devotion related to the study program.

3. Plan Quiet Days, Retreats, Schools of Prayer, Corporate Communions, World Day of Prayer observance, the formation of Bible study-prayer groups.

4. Worship and prayer should be the subject of at least one program during the year. Plan this in advance with the program committee.

5. Attend the Convocational Workshop on Devotional Life.

6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary of Devotional Life for any assistance.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS

4. Conduct a workshop at each Convocational Spring Planning Day.
5. Assist chairman of Diocesan Christian Social Ministries when needed.
6. Serve on Board of Church Women United in N. C.
7. Attend all ECW Diocesan Board meetings, Seminars and Annual Meetings.
8. Send copies of annual report to chairman of the Annual Meeting in time for the report to go into delegates' packets.

Responsibilities—Branch

1. Consult with Rector of the Parish about the needs within the Parish and with the County Social Services Department about needs in the community.
2. Give serious consideration to suggestions from Diocesan CSR Secretary about Diocesan and World Service.
3. Plan a comprehensive program to include service in the Parish, the Community, the Diocese, and the World.
4. Involve as many ECW members as possible, in order that each may use her special talents.
5. Attend Parish ECW Board meetings and keep them informed of the work of the CSR Committee.
6. Use Bulletin Boards, Newsletters, Sunday Bulletins or any other available means to keep all the church members aware of the opportunities of service.
7. Serve on the Christian Social Ministries Committee if your Parish has one.
8. Plan ahead. Don't wait until the year's activities are started before having definite projects to suggest. It is important to start early in the fall.
9. Have information available concerning worthy causes on which to spend the money raised by the Ways and Means Committee.
10. Attend Convocation meetings, Spring Planning Day, Annual Meeting, Church Women United meetings (if your community has this organization) and any local meetings of other groups that are concerned with Social problems.
11. Inform your Branch of the needs at Penick Home and Thompson Child Care Services.
12. Cooperate with other Episcopal Churches and churches of other denominations for projects too big for one Parish.
13. Before March 15th each year, send a report of your year's activities to the Diocesan CSR Secretary.
14. Remember it is your job to help others to provide for the poor, feed the hungry, transport the aged, help the retarded and handicapped, visit the shut-ins in your community and to cooperate with Church World Service, CROP, APSO, HOPE, Bread for the World, Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief and other similar agencies.

MISSIONS

MRS. OSCAR CRANZ
3808 Bonward Drive, Charlotte, N.C.

The purpose of this office is to encourage churchwomen to participate in the world-wide mission of the Church.

Information and suggestions to help attain this purpose follow.

1. Pray daily for the world-wide mission of the Church.
2. A good policy is to divide the Branch budget 50% inside the parish and 50% outside. Give to missions through your Diocesan pledge. This will enable the churchwomen on the Diocesan level to accept larger priority projects, thereby accomplishing more in a given area. Suggested projects will be sent upon request.
3. Remember especially the missionaries from the Diocese of North Carolina. Pray for them by name and write to them periodically. Participate in the Missionary Christmas Gift for both active and retired missionaries from this Diocese. The total money collected is divided equally among them. Please see that the check is made payable to Mrs. Oscar Cranz, Secretary (see above address) and mailed to her by NOVEMBER 15.
4. By action of the 1978 Annual Meeting, the 1979 Epiphany offering will go to the Scholarship Fund, St. Mary's School, Springfield, South Dakota. Please encourage your branch to seriously consider participating in this offering. Send it to the Diocesan Treasurer.

5. Many branches have expressed interest in assigning a specific missionary to each convocation. The purpose is to concentrate their monies, prayers etc. on one or two people and become more closely involved with them.

Below are the 1978-1979 assignments.

NORTHEAST—Jocelyn Gordon, Sister Adelaide

NORTHWEST—Mrs. Harvey Simmonds, Miss Catherine Jones

SOUTHWEST—Mrs. Henry Chapman, The Rev. James Fortune, Archer and Jane Torrey

SANDHILLS—Stuart and Everall Peele

6. Remember that mission begins at home and extends throughout the world. Christian Social Relations, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, College Work, and Missions are inseparable in that each offers opportunities for mission and ministry to people. Every churchwoman can participate. Please do your part to make this a successful year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

MRS. JOEL K. BOURNE
618 N. Howard Circle, Box 1594
Tarboro, N.C. 27886

Christian Education is growth in our knowledge and experience of Christ. Thus, planning programs for chapter meetings in each parish should involve the women totally—should inspire them, energize them, direct them to Christ and His work. The programs can be tremendously varied. WORSHIP is a primary part and can BE the program. STUDY of the Bible, Old Testament and New with all the commentaries available inevitably reveals TRUTH. Movies, cassettes, film strips are invaluable aids to Bible study. DISCUSSION groups with Bible reading can be the program. Study of the Proposed Book of Common Prayer, its lectionary, its church seasons, its new services can be the program. PROJECTS to carry on His work can be the program. Each chapter OFFICER can be or be responsible for a program on her area of Episcopal Churchwomen's work. So, also, can be the Diocesan officers and they are willing to come. NEEDS in your life, in your church, in your community can be the genesis of programs. Your PRIEST, senior and junior wardens, altar guild, Episcopal Young Churchmen advisors, Sunday School teachers can be the program. The forthcoming General Convention will debate some very timely subjects for our church that are fine program material. The HISTORY of your particular parish, its old records, its memorial gifts, its architecture, its leaders, its cemetery can be a fascinating study. And, finally, FELLOWSHIP—pure fun for newcomers, the newly confirmed, for ones we want to thank or honor (such as our parish's senior citizens, its leaders, our high school and college graduates), for ourselves can BE the program.

The Rev. Messrs. Stephen Harris, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh, N.C. and Harrison Simons, P.O. Box 194, Oxford, N.C. 27565 are the diocese's own Christian Education leaders who can be immensely helpful to you. The Rev. Mr. Simons has begun an Episcopal bookstore in Oxford that has invaluable resources.

THE UNITED THANK OFFERING

MRS. M. E. MOTSINGER
Pine Shadows Farm, Roaring Gap 28668

INTRODUCTION

The United Thank Offering is a practical day by day expression of thanksgiving in prayer and almsgiving through the use of our "Blue Boxes". The contents of the Blue Boxes are collected by each congregation during a service twice a year—on the Feast of the Annunciation (March 25) and St. Luke's Day (October 18) or as close to those dates as is convenient. The Diocesan offering is sent to New York. Disbursement of the National Offering is allocated for one year at the Triennial Meeting of the Churchwomen, and during the intervening years by the National United Thank Offering Committee. This is elected at Triennial on nominations from each Province.

Grants may be requested by any congregation and must be approved by the Diocesan Bishop. Traditionally the offering has been used mainly for missionary projects and to support women in special areas of the ministry of the Church. Funds are granted only to projects for which no other money is available through any part of the Church budget. No administrative costs are taken at any level from the offering.

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE U.T.O. TREASURER

PARISH OR MISSION

1. Be thoroughly informed about the United Thank Offering. Use your Blue Box and Thank Offering prayers regularly.

2. Provide Blue Boxes, envelopes and any information which may seem particularly pertinent to the women of your congregation.

3. Request time for a program on the United Thank Offering. Film strips are available from your Convocation Treasurer, grant lists etc. may be obtained on the order forms which you will receive from 815 Second Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017. I will be delighted to meet with any group if you wish. Stress that the Thank Offering is a daily expression of love and gratitude and not a "special" twice a year collection.

4. Attend the Spring Planning workshop.

5. Arrange with your rector or vicar for the Spring and Fall Ingathering services (as near to March 25 and October 18 as possible). Share with him any information you may receive about the United Thank Offering. It is most helpful if he will announce the Ingathering service ahead of time and will have it announced in your bulletin. Many times he will also be most helpful in preaching a special "Thanksgiving" sermon.

6. Please collect and count the offering, consolidate it in one check if possible and send it to me as soon as you can. Later contributions may be sent to me at any time and will be placed immediately in a savings account where they will draw interest.

7. The Diocesan Alms Basin is available to any congregation wishing to use it for their Ingathering. Please ask me about it.

8. Do not hesitate to ask me for any additional information I may have received.

9. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT: Many Episcopalians—both clerical and lay—really do not understand the spiritual and practical essence of the United Thank Offering. Do not be afraid of repetition—those who understand will appreciate it—those who do not may learn. Also, if it is at all possible, have extra envelopes in the pews and discuss with your priest the possibility of giving the loose offering as part of our Thanksgiving. In this way, all the people of the Church—not only the women—become involved.

CONVOCATION

1) To be available to Branches to help them learn more about the United Thank Offering, to attend all board meetings, conduct workshops, keep in touch with provincial and national representatives to acquire needed information.

2) To receive the Ingathering monies from the Branches and to send one check to the National Treasurer; to keep accurate records of each church; to send an annual financial report to the E.C.W. Treasurer and general reports for the Annual Meeting, Yearbook, and N. C. Churchman. To send spring and fall letters to all branches with news, reminders and information concerning the approaching Ingatherings, and to answer all correspondence promptly.

3) To arrange for representatives of the different convocations to take up the Diocesan Ingathering Offering during the Holy Communion service at our Annual Meeting, and to see that the Celebrant has a copy of the U.T.O. prayer.

4) To take care of the U.T.O. Alms Basin and to lend it to any church requesting it.

5) To serve as member of the finance committee.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES AND COLLEGE WORK

MRS. DON BLANTON
Country Club Circle, Lexington, N.C. 27292

We believe that every one embodies a unique personal ministry. It is the purpose of this office to help churchwomen find their personal ministry and encourage them to pursue it. Another duty of our office is to maintain a relationship with Episcopal students as they leave home to broaden their lives.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

1. Know ourselves better through prayer and study.
2. Explore our own interests, talents and gifts; then own, acclaim and use them!
3. Remind each other that women are members of the "Ministry of the Laity."
4. Encourage the knowledge that ministry is not confined to the church alone.
5. Support all women in their quest for selfhood and service.
6. Affirm our womanhood.
7. Take comfort in knowing that: "anytime I am helping other people in any way I am ministering to them; I am showing them God's love through my action and my being."

COLLEGE WORK

The college work section of this office seeks to maintain a relationship with Episcopal students.

1. Students who are away at college—
 - a. Keep in touch with students. Make a file on each student and send birthday, Christmas, and Easter cards, newsletters, etc.
 - b. Arrange get-together or honor the students at a regular church occasion such as a coffee hour after church service.
 - c. Plan a Sunday for college students and use them as acolytes, lay readers and ushers.
2. Students who come to local colleges—
 - a. Check with local colleges and determine what the relationship can be between Churchwomen and Episcopal students.
 - b. Encourage students to be a part of church program.
3. College chaplain will visit and explain their role on college campus. Invite a chaplain to speak at Churchwomen's meeting or plan a special church service for the presentation.

PROMOTION

MRS. JOHN GREGORY
5601 West Field Dr., Greensboro 27410

The essential duty of the Diocesan Promotion Secretary is to promote the ideas and activities of the Episcopal Churchwomen. It is her duty to keep all churchwomen informed of things to come and to report on noteworthy activities which have taken place. She is available to assist branch officers in promoting individual programs as well as diocesan sponsored ones. The effectiveness of this job depends somewhat on her being informed by local churchwomen about their endeavors.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of North Carolina is a very vital organization offering many opportunities for spiritual growth to all its members and prospective members. Communicating this message is the task of all, but particularly the task of promotional workers. In keeping with this, the following suggestions are offered:

1. Convocation Chairmen and Branch Presidents should be certain that someone is responsible for the work of informing the other members of what is going on in their organizations.
2. Make effective use of your church bulletins and/or newsletters to inform members about coming events and activities.
3. Assist other branch officers with your ideas and imagination in promoting the ECW and in promoting their respective programs.
4. Establish a good relationship with your local press and solicit their aid in promoting your work.
5. Inform other women in the Diocese of any activities or projects which you feel are outstanding by reporting them in the North Carolina Churchman.
6. Contact your Diocesan Secretary for any assistance she may be able to give you in carrying out the above suggestions.

ALTAR WORK AND SERVICE OF EXCHANGE

MRS. CHARLES SHAFFER
716 Gimghoul Drive, Chapel Hill 27514

Altar Work is rewarding and meaningful service in all of its phases. Anything done in God's service and to His Glory should be performed with love and to the best of our ability. Parishes have different needs and customs. No attempt will be made to standardize. The object is to increase the efficiency and devotion of each Guild in carrying out the wishes of the Rector. Our Lord accepted the ministry of faithful women during His earthly life. We pray that He accept and bless the work which our Guilds undertake in the care of their Sanctuaries.

In the individual branches the Altar Guild Chairman is not always an officer of the ECW. In fact, there may not be a specific person to whom these responsibilities would be delegated. In such cases, I would appreciate those having access to this hand book assuring that the proper person, Rector or Altar Guild Chairman be given this information, so they may avail themselves of the services of this office. I encourage your correspondence on any help needed.

This office will provide help in:

1. Setting up procedures for Altar work.
2. Teaching the skills necessary for maintaining a Sacristy, and preparing for various Services of Worship.
3. Specific hints and helps for the various housekeeping problems which arise.
4. Encouraging more ladies to participate in the activities of the Guild, and those in the Guild to refresh their enthusiasm for their work.
5. Suggestions for services which the Guilds may provide other than the traditional housekeeping duties.
6. In circulating items not currently in use by one Parish to a Parish or Mission where there is a need.
7. In obtaining printed aids such as books, catalogues for Altar needs.

ALTAR GUILD PRAYERS

For use before work:

Almighty God, grant we beseech Thee, that we may handle Holy things with reverence, and perform our work with such faithfulness and devotion, that it may rise with acceptance before Thee and obtain Thy blessing; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For use after work:

O God, bless and accept the work of my hands and all who minister to Thee in the care and adornment of Thy Sanctuary. Bless and hallow them who love the beauty of Thy House, that Thy Holy Name may be glorified; through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

MRS. WALLY AUSLEY
215 Reynolds Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27609

The Church Periodical Club, serving the ministry of the printed word since 1888, is the only organization in the Episcopal Church devoted solely to supplying free printed material to those who cannot otherwise obtain it. Its steadily expanding, adaptable program is unique among the churches in giving free materials to responsible recipients they themselves specify. It is supported by contributions and most of its work is done by volunteers.

CPC functions on all levels, nationally, world-wide, locally—in parishes, communities, dioceses. Religious, educational, technical, recreational books, magazines, leaflets are provided for the most remote places and for nearest neighbors. Needs that exceed local resources are referred to National Books Fund.

This fund is directed by a committee of experienced volunteers, meeting to evaluate each request. Most are granted as far as funds permit. National Books Fund projects have financed a translation of the Prayer Book in Malay to giving medical journals to the stations served by the S. S. Hope.

How can CPC become alive in your Parish?

1. Pray for the work of CPC for guidance asking God to direct you in spreading the Good News with the printed word.

2. Plan to publicize the work of CPC to all men, women and children in your parish by observing the first Sunday in October. (CPC Sunday)

3. Plan to educate your parish on CPC Sunday in the importance of continuing to supply printed materials to people around the world.

4. Use your parish bulletin and meetings in your parish to remind them of CPC Sunday in October. Use the CPC prayers at all services and meetings that week in your parish.

In our Diocese, the CPC work is done through the Episcopal Churchwomen, headed by a Diocesan Director of CPC and carried out by CPC secretaries in the branches. The Secretary of Missions could also serve as CPC Secretary in those churches of small membership.

NOTES:

All contributions should be sent to the Diocesan Director of CPC. All contributions should be made by check payable to Church Periodical Club. Do not remit to the Diocesan Treasurer. Enclose a memo showing the source so proper credit can be given.

When your branch or parish sends a check to the National Books Fund as a memorial or as a gift to a Seminarian, the CPC secretary should so inform the recipient of the memorial or gift.

PRESIDENT'S CROSS

The engraved silver Celtic cross worn by the Diocesan President during her term of office was a gift of Mrs. Leslie Evans in 1956. She wore the cross during her administration as President of the Woman's Auxiliary and presented it to Mrs. T. P. Thomas at her installation at Annual Meeting, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Raleigh, in 1958. The back of the cross bears the inscription: "President, itWoman's Auxiliary, Diocese of North Carolina."

PENDULA

The pendula is worn by all Diocesan Past-Presidents in the IV Provice. It is an oval of gold or silver, with a Chi-Rho symbol bearing seventeen stars on the crossbars. The stars represent the number of Diocese in the Province. The pendula is a gift to our Retiring Diocesan President by Dr. Philip DeWolfe, now of Florida, in memory of his mother, Elizabeth Owens DeWolfe. Dr. DeWolfe's wife, Anne, was a member of our Diocesan Executive Board in 1963 when the decision was made to give the pendula to retiring Diocesan Presidents. At that time North Carolina was the only Diocese in the Province which did not present one to its President. Through Dr. DeWolfe's generosity, all living Past-Presidents were presented with a pendula at Annual Meeting at St. Michael's Church, Raleigh, in 1963. Mrs. James L. Godfrey of Chapel Hill was the Diocesan President when this tradition was begun in our Diocese.

ALMS BASIN

The U.T.O. Alms Basin is made of silver and gold collected from all parishes in the Diocese of North Carolina; an idea conceived by Mrs. B. W. Roberts. Mrs. Brown Patterson designed the center seal made up of gold wedding rings, pins and crosses donated. Mr. Louis Glasier was the Ecclesiastical craftsman. It was dedicated by Bishop Penick at Annual Meeting, April 20, 1955 in Chapel Hill. It is available for Spring and Fall Ingathering upon request to the U.T.O. Secretary.
